Asian Pacific American Law Students Association

University of Michigan Law School • 625 South State Street Office #112 • Ann Arbor, MI 48109

On behalf of the Asian Pacific American Law Students Association (APALSA) at the University of Michigan Law School, we are writing to invite you to the sixth annual APALSA Origins Banquet. Origins is a celebration of Asian Pacific American diversity and culture. This year, the banquet will take place on March 25, 2011 and will feature a prominent Asian Pacific American speaker, dinner, music and the announcement of the 2011 recipients of the APALSA Public Interest Fellowship.

APALSA has a rich history of involvement with the Law School and its students, and we know that is due to the strong activism and participation from students like you, when you were here on campus. We are hoping to forge stronger connections with our alumni, and towards that end, would welcome your attendance at Origins.

As you may know from your time at Michigan, the APALSA Public Interest Fellowship was created in 2005, and is dedicated to providing funding to highly qualified first-year student members who work for public interest organizations during their first-year summers. Those who hold an unpaid clerkship or government position are also eligible to apply. The goal is to encourage Asian American law students to go into the public or nonprofit sector where they can contribute to the Asian American community either directly (i.e. serving low-income Asian American individuals) or indirectly (i.e. increasing Asian American diversity by entering into a legal field where Asian Americans have traditionally been underrepresented).

We encourage you to visit our website at <http://students.law.umich.edu/apalsa/> for more information about what activities APALSA is engaged in these days. For your convenience, we have included a donation form along with this letter. Please feel free to contact any of us should you have any questions. We deeply appreciate your past support and look forward to working with you in the future!

Sincerely yours,
