

Third Annual University of Michigan-Peking University Tax Conference

Comparative Tax Administration: Chinese & US Perspectives

October 17 & 18, 2008
120 Hutchins Hall

Friday, October 17, 2008: Chinese Perspectives on Tax Administration
9:00 – 9:30 AM	Welcome
9:30 – 10:30 AM	System Innovation of China's Enterprise Income Tax Law Professor Liu Jianwen, Peking University Law School
10:45 AM – 12:00 N	Topic to be Announced Professor Liu Longheng, Beijing Union University College of Arts and Science  The Jurisprudential Base of the Special Tax Adjustment System in China's Enterprise Income Tax Law Professor Xu Mengzhou, Renmin University of China Law School.
1:30 – 3:00 PM	The Development and Reform of China's Individual Income Tax Administration Professor Tang Gongliang, Central University of Finance and Economics Taxation School  The Embarrassed Role of China's Tax Agencies in Bankruptcy Procedure Professor Xiong Wei, Wuhan University Law School
3:30 – 5:00 PM	A Study on Taxation ADR Mechanism Professor Chen Shaoying, East China University of Politics and Law, School of Economic Law  The Conflict between Tax Administrative Regulations and Tax Administrative Rules. Professor Zhang Fuqiang, South China University of Science and Technology Law School
Saturday, October 18, 2008: US Perspectives on Tax Administration
9:00 – 10:15 AM	Economic Perspectives on US Tax Administration Professor David Gamage, University of California, Berkeley  Comment Professor Joel Slemrod, University of Michigan
10:30 AM – 12:00 N	US Tax Administration From a Treasury Office of Tax Policy Perspective Eric Solomon, Assistant Secretary (Tax Policy), U.S. Department of Treasury; Joseph Guttentag, Deputy Assistant Secretary for International Tax Affairs (retired); and Philip West, Partner, Steptoe & Johnson LLP  Comment Professor Reuven Avi-Yonah, University of Michigan
1:30 – 3:00 PM	US Tax Administration From the IRS Perspective Sheldon Cohen, Director, Farr, Miller & Washington, LLC and Donald Korb, Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service  Comment Professor Kyle Logue, University of Michigan
3:15 – 4:45 PM	US Tax Administration from the IRS Perspective James Halpern, Judge, United States Tax Court and David Laro, Federal Judge, United States Tax Court  Comment Professor Doug Kahn, University of Michigan