The Docket
January 21-27

Docket Information

The Docket is the Law School's official means of communicating important administrative announcements and many Law School events to the student body. The Docket is published weekly [bi-weekly June-August] only in electronic form and the complete contents are contained in this site. Students are responsible for all information in each issue. In addition, please check both your e-mail accounts and pendaflex mail folders daily for important faculty and administrative communications disseminated after the week's Docket has been published.

Unless you request otherwise, announcements will appear in one issue only.

Requests for the Law School Calendar (not the Docket) should be submitted through the Events Reservation form.

The Docket accepts announcements on a Web based submission form. The article submission form is available at https://cgi2.www.law.umich.edu/_Docketposting/DocketSubmissionForm.asp. Our deadline remains 1 p.m. Wednesday for publication the following Monday (Docket Schedule)

Location: 150 HH

Event Contact: Robin A. Kaplan, rakaplan@umich.edu, 734.764.0546

State court clerkships are found at both trial and appellate levels and deal with a wide range of subjects-everything from contract and tort disputes, to divorce, custody and probate issues. Often overlooked by students in the clerkship hunt, most legal disputes in the U.S. are handled in state courts and these clerkships provide excellent educational and mentoring experiences. Listen to a panel of UMLS faculty and alums describe their experiences clerking for judges in the state court system. Open to all students.

Panelists include:

Assistant Professor Madeline Kochen

Professor Kochen earned her B.A., magna cum laude, and her J.D. from Yeshiva University (Cardozo law School). She holds an A.M. in Near Eastern languages and civilizations and a Ph.D. in religion and political philosophy from Harvard University. From 1989 to 1992 Professor Kochen was the law assistant to Acting Justice Elliot Wilk of the New York Supreme Court. She has taught at Stanford and Harvard and spent three years at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton.

John Fedynsky, ’04, is a former Research Attorney for the Michigan Court of Appeals, in Detroit and in Grand Rapids, Michigan. John is currently in his second clerkship to the Hon. Robert J. Cleland, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Matthew Scott, ’00, Assistant General Counsel, United Media. Matt was a clerk to the Hon. Irma S. Raker, Maryland Court of Appeals (the state’s highest court). Matt was also an associate at Morgan Lewis, Washington, D.C. before going in-house.

Beth Koivunen Wickwire, ’02, was a clerk to two Michigan judges: the Hon. Joseph P. Swallow (now retired), and the Hon. John F. Kowalski (still on the bench), from Michigan's 26th Judicial Circuit Court. Beth served for a two-year term immediately following graduation. She is currently an associate at the Kitch Law Firm in Ann Arbor.

Time: Saturday, February 9, 8:45 a.m. - 5:15 p.m.
Location: 100 HH
Event Contact: Priya Baskaran, bpriya@umich.edu, 412.576.6859

With the recent passing of Proposal 2 as well as the recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling regarding the use of race in public schools, MJR&L believes it is crucial to maintain an open and positive dialogue regarding race and education. To that end, the Symposium endeavors to address the variety of policy and legal questions arising out of the anti-affirmative action movement. The Symposium will explore a broad range of issues including: the current effects of Proposition 209 in California and the potential effects of Proposal 2 on public university education and leadership within the state of Michigan, potential legal alternatives to affirmative action, and existing and emerging efforts to remedy K-12 educational disparities. Most notably, we present this symposium with the hope of preserving the University of Michigan's longstanding commitment to diversity and as an answer to University of Michigan President Coleman's request to "Show others what a U-M education looks like".

Scholarships

Macomb County Bar Foundation Trustees Scholarship
This $3,000 scholarship will be awarded to a second or third year law student who demonstrates a commitment to serve or contribute to the Macomb County legal community, a need for financial assistance and high scholastic achievement. Application instructions are available in the Financial Aid Office, 310 HH. The application deadline is January 25, 2008.

National Security Education Program
The National Security Education Program (NSEP) provides a unique funding opportunity for U.S. students to study world regions critical to U.S. interests. NSEP was designed to provide Americans with the resources and encouragement they need to acquire skills and experiences in areas of the world critical to the future security of our nation, in exchange for a commitment to seek work in the federal government. As students of other cultures and languages, NSEP Boren Scholars and Fellows begin to acquire the international competence needed to communicate effectively across borders, to understand other perspectives, and to analyze economic and political affairs. Applications and further information are available on their website at www.iie.org/programs/nsep/default.htm. The application deadline for the Boren Fellowship is January 30, and the deadline for the Boren Scholarship is February 12, 2008.

Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago Academic Scholarship Program
Approximately $500,000 is available for Jewish students who are identified as having promise for significant contributions in their chosen careers, and are in need of financial assistance for full-time academic programs primarily in the helping professions. Legal domicile in the greater Chicago metropolitan area, or in some cases, Cook County or Northwest Indiana is required. Refugees or asylees are encouraged to apply, as citizenship is not a prerequisite. To apply, go to www.jvschicago.org and click on Scholarship Services. The application deadline is February 15, 2008.

Air and Waste Management Association
The East Michigan Chapter, A&WMA, is pleased to announce up to four $1,500 scholarships to be awarded to students studying for a career in air pollution control, hazardous waste management or another environmental area. The scholarships must be used at a college or university located within the State of Michigan. Merit is of primary interest, but financial need, extracurricular activities and interests are also considered. Applications are available online at www.emawma.org. The application deadline is February 28, 2008.

Toledo Community Foundation
The Toledo Community Foundation is pleased to offer the Amir and Shaheda Khan Scholarship for Law. This scholarship is for individuals of the Islamic faith who are pursuing a Juris Doctor degree at Case Western Reserve University, Michigan State University, The Ohio State University, University of Dayton, University of Michigan or The University of Toledo. It is anticipated that one $1,000 scholarship will be awarded. Application instructions are available in the Financial Aid Office, 310 HH. The application deadline is March 3, 2008.
Adler Pollock & Sheehan Diversity Scholarship

Applicants must also demonstrate strong academic achievement, financial need, a desire to work and reside in Massachusetts or Rhode Island upon graduation, demonstrated commitment to the community and a vision of contributions to the profession and community after graduation. Applications are available online at www.apslaw.com. The application deadline is June 1, 2008.

KeyBank’s $2,500 Scholarship
KeyBank is giving away a $2,500 scholarship every month from September through August. Enter online at www.key.com/gen/html/LP-kerscholarship.html. All entries are good through the end of the sweepstakes. It's open to graduate students and parents of graduate students. There are no GPA or essay requirements.

Internships

Morris K. Udall Foundation Internship
The Native American Congressional Internship Program offers distinctive opportunities for law students who are interested in learning more about the federal legislative process while gaining an insider's view of the government's unique trust relationship with tribes. Candidates must demonstrate academic excellence, leadership qualities, and an interest in working with Native American issues and policy. Further information and applications are available on their website at www.udall.gov/. The application deadline is January 31, 2008.

Institute for Educational Equity & Opportunity Summer Associate Award
IFEEO has established a Summer Associate Award in the amount of $1,000 per week for 12 weeks. A second-year law student will develop and submit a proposal for a full-time 12 week internship with a public interest organization or an attorney that is involved in litigation to enhance educational opportunities for disadvantaged students, particularly through legal means, such as school finance/equity litigation. Application materials are available in the Financial Aid Office, 310 HH. The deadline to apply is February 8, 2008.

Fellowships

Foreign Languages And Area Studies Graduate Fellowships (FLAS)
Foreign Language Area Studies (FLAS) fellowships are available annually for law students who wish to undertake study of a designated modern foreign language in conjunction with their law degree. FLAS fellowships provide full tuition and living expenses for one academic year. They are awarded and administered by the University of Michigan Area Studies Centers of the University's International Institute. Applicants are selected based on academic performance, the goals and activities of the applicant, and the relevance of language study to the applicant's professional development and endeavors. This is an exciting opportunity for those who wish to study a FLAS-supported language along with their law studies.

Please go to the International Institute's FLAS web site http://www.ii.umich.edu/funding/gradstud/flas for details on languages, eligibility, application procedures, etc. Students who are interested in applying should go to this web site to access application materials.

If you have any questions, please contact the appropriate area center/program (contact information may be found at the web site previously mentioned - click on "FLAS Info Packet 2008-09") that you are submitting an application to. Also, please feel free to contact Assistant Dean for International Affairs, Virginia Gordan at: vgordan@umich.edu, or 734.764.5269.

International Institute Language Fellowship (IILF)
The International Institute announces the International Institute Language Fellowship (IILF) available for language study through the Center for Chinese Studies, Center for Japanese Studies and the Korean Studies Program. Law students in their first or second year may apply for IILFs for the following year.

Application Deadline: February 1, 2008

UM's East Asia National Resource Center (Center for Chinese Studies, Center for Japanese Studies and the Korean Studies Program) did not receive funding from the Department of Education for FLAS Fellowships this year, however, the International Institute is pleased to announce that a limited number of graduate fellowships for the study of Chinese, Japanese, Korean and Tibetan will be available in 2008-09. These awards, called International Institute Language Fellowships (IILF), will mirror FLAS awards with regard to funding structure, and application requirements.

IILFs are available for law students who wish to undertake study of these languages in conjunction with their law degree. IILFs provide full tuition and living expenses for one academic year. They are awarded and administered by the Center for Chinese Studies, Center for Japanese Studies and the Korean Studies Program of the University’s International Institute. Applicants are selected based on academic performance, the goals and activities of the applicant, and the relevance of language study to the applicant's professional development and endeavors. This is an exciting opportunity for those who wish to study an IILF-supported language along with their law studies.

Chinese & Tibetan: This fellowship cannot be used for first-year Chinese. Continuing students can find application information at http://www.ii.umich.edu/ccs/academics/fundingopportunities. The program contact is Maryellen Bartolome (mbartolo@umich.edu, 734.936.1603).

Japanese: This fellowship cannot be used for first-year Japanese. Continuing students can access an application at http://www.ii.umich.edu/cjs/academics/fundstudents/. The program contact is Ann Takata (cjsadmissions@umich.edu, 734.647.3766).

Korean: Students interested in the study of Korean should contact: Jiyoung Lee (jiyoungl@umich.edu, 734.764.1825).

If you have any questions, please contact the appropriate area center/program that you are submitting an application to. Also, please feel free to contact Virginia Gordan, assistant dean for international affairs, (e-mail: vgordan@umich.edu, 734.764.5269).

The International Institute Individual Fellowships are designed to support University of Michigan students, regardless of citizenship, who are enrolled in a degree program and wish to participate in internships or conduct research abroad.

All students are required to complete the application form, on which they must indicate their academic level, enrollment status and whether they are requesting funds primarily for an internship or for research. The application deadline is 5:00 p.m. on Friday, February 15, 2008. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

For complete details including: project categories, eligibility information, application information, etc., please consult the International Institute web site at: http://www.ii.umich.edu/ (click on "Graduate Funding", then click on "International Institute Individual Fellowships - Application Deadline 02/15/08").

Questions may be directed to: Ms. Amy Kehoe, International Institute, akehoe@umich.edu, 734.763.3297.

Protecting Your Text Books And Valuables

The Office of Student Affairs was just informed about the recent theft of a textbook from the Student Pendaflexes. Stealing books and selling them to bookstores has become an organized criminal activity on campus. To help thwart thieves, we suggest the following:

• Students should not leave books, valuables, book bags or purses unattended anywhere in the Law School complex. This includes your Pendaflex, the Reading Room and carrels in the library, where a number of thefts have occurred in the past.

• Write your name and telephone number in the inside margins on a page you will remember in each of your books. This will enable you to prove the book is yours if it turns up at one of the bookstores.

• If your books or valuables are stolen, be sure to file a police report with the Department of Public Safety at 734.763.1131. At least one bookstore will not return books to you without a police report on file.

• If you believe that your books have been stolen, e-mail a description, (book’s title, author and any descriptive information you can, e.g. “heavily highlighted in green up to Chapter 11, with my name and phone number on page 371) of the books to the manager of the Michigan Union Bookstore, where a database of all stolen book titles is maintained. If someone comes in to sell a book, they are able to search the descriptions to see if it matches anything on their database. The e-mail address of the bookstore is bksumichiganunion@bncollege.com. Put “Attention: Textbook Manager” in the “Subject” line.

- Let the Office of Student Affairs know about the theft, either by sending an e-mail to Dean Baum (dbaum@umich.edu) or visiting the office in 301 HH.

- As a general reminder, if you observe a crime or other suspicious behavior at the Law School, please contact the Department of Public Safety.

Commencement Weekend Airfare Discounts

Special airfare discounts are now available from Northwest Airlines for family and friends attending 2008 University of Michigan Commencement ceremonies.

To check fares or make reservations, visit the Northwest Airlines home page at www.nwa.com and do the following:

* Under the "Flights" tab, click on "NWA Discount Travel E-Cert Redemption" (located near the bottom).

* On the Flight Search screen, click "Login" and enter your WorldPerks number if you have one.

* Enter your preferred flight cities and dates in the "Flight Options" section. In the "E-Cert" section of the same page, select "Meeting Agreement (WorldFile Number)" from the pull-down menu and enter NYVLU in the Meeting Agreement Code box.

* Click the red search "Search for Flights" button.

Please note: Discounts are valid on flights between April 18, 2008 and May 11, 2008 and range from 2% to 15%, depending on how far in advance reservations are made (the earlier reservations are booked, the greater the potential discount). The discount is available on Northwest Airlines operated flights and in some cases on Northwest Airlines code share flights operated by Continental Airlines. The discount may not be available on all fares, and Northwest will offer the lowest available fare at the time of booking, regardless of whether it includes the discount. If you need assistance, contact Northwest Airlines specialty sales at 800.328.1111. Travel agents may book tickets using the NYVLU WorldFile code at www.worldagentdirect.com.

Bergstrom Child Welfare Law Summer Fellowship-Child Advocacy Law Clinic Positions

Location: 313 LR

Event Contact: Alicia Lixey, lixey@umich.edu, 734.763.6750

The Child Advocacy Law Clinic invites first and second year law students to apply for two summer positions at the clinic where they will represent children and parents in child protective proceedings in Michigan. Students will be expected to work a minimum of 10 weeks. One of the positions will begin in early May and the other in early June. Students will also participate in the Bergstrom Child Welfare Law Fellowship Training, which will take place in Ann Arbor on May 21, 22, 23.

Interested applicants should follow the procedures to apply for the Bergstrom Child Welfare Law Summer Fellowship which can be found at http://www.law.umich.edu/bergstrom. Additionally, candidates should include a cover letter explaining why they wish to work at the clinic. Applications are due no later than February 1, 2008, although candidates are encouraged to apply earlier. If you have any questions, please contact Alicia Lixey at 734.763.5000 or lixey@umich.edu.

Summer Law Clerk Positions

Event Contact: Laura Burstein, bursteil@umich.edu, 734.998.9454

The Family Law Project has openings for summer law clerks.

The Family Law Project is a student organization at the University of Michigan Law School and an office of Legal Services of South Central Michigan. LSSCM provides free legal services to very low income and senior persons in 13 counties in south-central Michigan. FLP provides free legal advice and representation to indigent survivors of domestic violence in Washtenaw County, primarily in the area of family law including divorce, custody and personal protection order actions.

Job Description: Law clerks work under the supervision of a staff attorney on assigned cases. Case work includes conducting client interviews, drafting pleadings, court filings, and appearing at court hearings.

Qualifications: Law students, preferably with one year of law school completed. It is helpful if the student has experience working with low-income persons and/or survivors of domestic violence. Applicants are encouraged to apply for public interest fellowships through their law school and through Equal Justice America at www.equaljusticeamerica.org.
FLP is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage minority and disabled persons and women to apply.
