

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS AND TRAVEL GRANTS

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

http://www.asil.org/careers/CareerResources1_050824.html#fellowship

Links to international law fellowship announcements.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW - ARTHUR C. HELTON FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

<http://www.asil.org/aboutasil/heltonindex.html>

Program awards micro-grants up to $1,000 to law students and young professionals for the pursuit of fieldwork and research on significant issues involving international law, human rights, humanitarian affairs, and related areas.

CLARA BELFIELD & HENRY BATES OVERSEAS FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.law.umich.edu/CentersAndPrograms/cicl/programs/BatesTravelFellowships.htm>

Recent University of Michigan law school graduates or law students who have had two or more years of law study to travel abroad for study or work experience. Students may apply for grants to enable them to pursue legal studies abroad (including independently designed research projects) or to accept professional internships with international or government agencies, nongovernmental organizations, law firms, or other legal or political institutions in foreign countries.

DAVID L. BOREN GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS, NATIONAL SECURITY EDUCATION PROGRAM (NSEP)

<http://nsep.aed.org/>

Boren Fellowships support graduate students pursuing the study of languages, cultures, and world regions that are critical to U.S. national security but are less frequently studied by U.S. graduate students (i.e., areas of the world other than Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand), and who are highly motivated by the opportunity to work in the federal government.

DERECHOG HUMAN RIGHTS

<http://www.derechos.net/links/res/grants.html>

Derechog Human Rights supports local human rights NGOs and dispenses human rights information and fellowship opportunities via the Internet.

ROBERT BOSCH FOUNDATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

<http://www.cdsintl.org/fromusa/bosch.htm>

Program provides young American professionals (ages 23-34) with two high-level one-year work placements in the federal government and private sector in Germany. Three seminars taking place throughout Europe provide an in-depth understanding of issues facing Germany and the European Union today. Candidates are competitively chosen from the fields of business administration, economics, journalism, law, political science and public policy.

CENTRAL EUROPEAN AND EURASIAN LAW INITIATIVE (CEELI)

http://www.abanet.org/ceeli/program/larp_fellows/home.html

The Legal Analyst Fellows are fully integrated into CEELI's day-to-day operations in Washington, D.C., and are relied upon to conduct in-depth legal research and provide analysis of issues related to the rule of law and legal reform in emerging democracies and transitioning states. Fellowship is for one year.

CONSULATE GENERAL OF SWEDEN TRAVEL GRANTS

<http://www.swedeninfo.com/education2.htm>

Two types of grants: The Bicentennial Swedish-American Exchange Fund: a professional travel grant in the amount of up to 25,000 SEK in support of intensive research trips to Sweden of two to four weeks in length; and the SASS Swedish Travel Grant: an academic travel grant in the amount of up to $1000 in support of study or research in Swedish literature, culture or social sciences.

FORDHAM LAW SCHOOL – CROWLEY PROGRAM IN INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS

<http://www.crowleyprogram.org/fellowship.htm>

The Crowley Program in International Human Rights which is dedicated to promoting human rights scholarship and advocacy at Fordham Law School and around the world is administered by a fellow who is a law school graduate.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AREA STUDIES FELLOWSHIP

<http://www.umich.edu/~iinet/iisite/funding/FLAS/Site/index.htm>

A Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship provides tuition and a stipend to students studying designated foreign languages in combination with area studies or international aspects of professional studies. There are academic year and summer fellowships available.

FULBRIGHT FELLOWSHIP

<http://www.iie.org/fulbright/>

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program operates in more than 140 countries worldwide and grants are available in all fields of study. There are full (academic year), travel, language training and other types of grants.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR SCHOLARSHIPS

http://www.humboldt-foundation.de/en/programme/stip_aus/buka.htm

There are 10 German Chancellor Scholarships annually given to prospective leaders from the U.S. (under 35 years of age) in the academic, economic and political fields, enabling them to carry out one-year research projects of their own choice in Germany.

GERMAN MARSHALL FUND U.S.-EUROPEAN RELATIONS FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.gmfus.org/fellowships/index.cfm>

Offers eight different types of fellowships/grants.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY CARR CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY FELLOWSHIP

<http://www.ksg.harvard.edu/cchrp/fellows.shtml>

A Fellowship program that brings together a diverse group of human rights practitioners, scholars and activists to conduct research on human rights policy, contribute to the Center's programs, and participate in broader dialogue with students, faculty and researchers in the Harvard community

HELLENIC TIMES SCHOLARSHIP FUND FOR GREEK-AMERICAN STUDENTS

<http://www.htsfund.org/guidelines.html>

Scholarships awarded to undergraduate and graduate students of Greek descent. Applicants must be 17-25 years of age.

HUMAN RIGHTS FIRST

http://www.humanrightsfirst.org/about_us/jobs/fellowships.htm

Fellowships with Human Rights First offer recent law school graduates an opportunity to explore real world application of international human rights law at national offices: New York or DC. Fellowships are not offered every year and offers fellowships through Equal Justice Works Fellowships, Helton Fellowships and Bernstein Fellowships.

HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.hrw.org/about/info/fellows.html>

The Alan R. and Barbara D. Finberg Fellowship is the only one-year fellowship open to any candidate who is a recent law, journalism, international relations or area studies graduates (at the Master's level for the latter three categories) by no later than August 2006. Fellowships are in the New York and DC offices.

INSIGHT COLLABORATIVE FELLOWSHIP

<http://www.insightcollaborative.org/content/fellowship/index.html>

One year fellowship to foster a community of global-minded individuals prepared to contribute more effectively to their local, national, and international communities. The first three months of the fellowship take place at the Boston and the remaining nine months of the Fellowship are divided into foreign placements proposed by the Fellow.

INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE'S UNIVERSITY TRAINEESHIP PROGRAM

<http://www.law.umich.edu/CentersAndPrograms/cicl/programs/ICJUnivTraineeshipProgram.htm>

For final year JD or LLM students. The fellowship is for a period of nine months and only one nominee from each school is typically selected. Primary duties include research, preparing case files, and drafting various types of documents.

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN (IFUW) FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.ifuw.org/fellowships/index.htm>

Fellowships are award every 2 to 3 years (last time was 2005/2006). Must be a member of IFUW to qualify. There is also a listing of National Awards with IFUW affiliates

INSTITUTE OF CURRENT WORLD AFFAIRS FELLOWSHIPS

www.icwa.org

Fellowships must be under the age of 36 and are awarded for a minimum period of two years. Fellowship areas include East-Central Europe or Middle East; forestry or forest-related specialties; and one that is open ended, up to the candidate. The Fellow will be chosen to live, study, work, and write in any nation or region of the world outside of the U.S.

INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FELLOWS

http://www.iie.org/Content/NavigationMenu/Programs_Portal/Browse_Programs/Professional_Programs.htm

List of over 30 institutions that provide programs for professions in all areas of study.

INSTITUTE FOR HUMANE STUDIES FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.theihs.org/>

This website has a database of available internships in many fields. It also contains virtually free summer seminars that explore topics such as globalization and public policy.

INSTITUTE FOR HUMANE STUDIES CHARLES G. KOCH SUMMER FELLOW PROGRAM

<http://www.theihs.org/article.php/174.html?menuid=3>

The Institute assigns applicants an internship at one of their participating host organizations, including American Legislative Exchange Council and World Resources Institute (WRI). The internship also includes career workshops, seminars and speakers, a $1,500 stipend, housing and airfare.

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH AND EXCHANGE BOARD – TRAVEL GRANTS FOR LAW GRADUATES

<http://www.irex.org/programs/stg/index.asp>

The short-term travel grants provide fellowships up to 8-weeks for graduates pursuing research projects in Europe and Eurasia. Supported research topics are those in Eurasian and East European studies and those that also address U.S. foreign policy interest in the region.

JAPANESE AMERICAN CITIZENS LEAGUE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

<http://www.jacl.org/scholarships.html#jacl>

Offers over 30 awards to qualified students nationwide who are an active national JAACL member. Other one-time scholarships are also listed.

KOREAN AMERICAN SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

http://www.kasf.org/application_set.html

Students currently enrolled in a full-time graduate program are selected based on financial need, academic achievement, school activities, and community services. Applications are submitted through the respective KASF region.

LATIN AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.laef.org/scholarships/other.html>

Website provides a list of scholarship opportunities that are offered by various organizations that target Latino students, especially in the State of Colorado.

LUCE SCHOLARS PROGRAM FOR ASIA

<http://www.hluce.org/4prdesfm.html>

Program provides stipends and internships for 15 young Americans to live and work in Asia. The candidates are nominated by 67 colleges and universities and the Lupe Foundation does not accept applications submitted directly to the foundation. Candidates must be American citizens who have at least a bachelors degree and are no more than 29 years of age on Sept 1 of the year of the program.

MACKENZIE KING TRAVELING SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANADIAN STUDENTS

<http://www.mcgill.ca/gps/fellowships/traveling-fellowships/mackenzie/#MKT>

Offered to a graduate of any Canadian university to engage in postgraduate studies in the U.S. or U.K. in international or industrial relations (including international or industrial aspects of law, history, politics, economics).

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES (OAS)

<http://www.educoas.org/portal/en/becas/acerca.aspx?culture=en>

The Agency provides several hundred fellowships for graduate studies and research, fellowships for undergraduate studies at universities through the region and awards for specialized, short-term training at educational institutions and training centers in OAS Member and Observer States. Candidates should contact the National Liaison Office \(ONE\) of their country of origin.

PAUL & DAISY SOROS FELLOWSHIPS FOR NEW AMERICANS

<http://www.pdsoros.org/about.html>

Candidates apply from all spectrums of graduate field. For more information, there is also are statistical profiles of past Soros Fellows and advise on how to proceed with the application.

POPULATION CONNECTION PAID FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.populationconnection.org/Employment/>

Population Connection offers fellowships in Washington, D.C. for graduate students with a special interest in population issues. One fellowship is usually available in Field and Outreach and in Government Relations. Fellowships are full-time and offered in two 5 ½ month sessions. In addition, unpaid internships are also available.

SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH COUNCIL INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS

<http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/?969394298>

SSRC fellowships provide grants to researchers in a wide range of themes, from African youth and globalization to public spheres in the Middle East and North Africa. Most of the support from the Council goes to predissertation, dissertation, and postdoctoral fellowships. There are links to current funded fellowships.

ROTARY SCHOLARSHIPS

www.rotary.org/programs/index.html

Rotary International offers a broad range of programs and activities designed to improve human condition internationally.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE

<http://www.umich.edu/~iinet/iisite/fundops.html>

Offers a range of funding opportunities for graduates in work-study jobs and some regular staff positions at the University.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN LAW SCHOOL JEAN MONNET RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

<http://www.law.umich.edu/CentersAndPrograms/cicl/programs/JeanMonnetResearchFellowship.htm>

Fellows spend six months in residence at Law School conducting research and writing a publishable paper on European integration. This fellowship is intended primarily for professors of law researching European integration, but scholars with backgrounds in law-related fields may also apply.

YALE-CHINA LEGAL EDUCATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

http://www.yalechina.org/programs/legal_education.html

The Yale-China Association sends two American lawyers each year to teach law in Chinese universities. This program allows the fellows the opportunity to learn about China and its legal system through immersion. Fellowship recipients are provided language instruction and placement is for one year.