Winter 2020 First-Year Electives

EL = Experiential Learning course
NY = fulfills the New York Bar's ethics requirement
Note: First-year electives do not fulfill the Upper-Level Writing requirement for J.D. 1L students

Classes with footnote #35 on the Winter 2020 Class Schedule are Optional First-Year Electives (can be taken in addition to a Mandatory first-year elective).

READ THE FOOTNOTES on the class schedule for vital information such as pre-requisites or co-requisites, special meeting dates, and degree requirement fulfillment.

Not all elective choices will be available to every student due to the varying 1L section schedules.

The MLaw Schedule application (a powerful tool to aid students during the class selection process) allows users to sort Winter 2020 classes by the "First Year Elective" category to view all of the first-year electives (Mandatory and Optional).

Visit the Law School's Office of Student Records website for Registration Information (under "Class Registration") and Class Selection Tools & Resources (under "Class Schedules") to prepare for Winter 2020 Class Bidding.
