The US Soccer Women’s National Team Equal Pay Dispute
Instructor: Timothy Pinto  Offered: Winter 2021
Credit: 1
Enrollment Cap: 12
Description
We will do a deep dive into the documents, arguments, legal strategies, and media strategies related to the ongoing dispute between US Soccer and the women’s national team union regarding the union’s Equal Pay Act claim. Professor Pinto is the former general counsel of US Soccer and thus has insights about the relationship between the parties. For students who took Sports Law in the Winter 2020 term, some of this material will be duplicative of what was covered in class, but this seminar will provide the opportunity to look at and discuss the issue in a much more detailed way.
