

Ricardo García

Ricardo García is a postdoctoral fellow at International Bureau Fiscal Documentation on multilateralism in International Taxation. He was educated at the University of Seville, where he graduated in Law in 2002. He holds a Master in Taxation from the Instituto de Estudios Fiscales/University of Sevilla (Spain) and a advanced LL.M in Comparative, European and International laws at the European University Institute (“EUI”). He received his Ph.D. from the the EUI in 2015.

Prior to joining the EUI in 2010, he worked, for seven years, as a tax practitioner in Deloitte, PwC and in one of the major Law Firms in Spain (Perez-Llorca) in the field of taxation, concentrating in due diligences/tax audits, M&A transactions, and tax opinions related to tax disputes.

His research interests center on European Taxation and International Tax Law. He has published several articles in the former field, namely on the interaction between the preliminary reference procedure and the substantive developments of EU Direct taxation, which was the topic of his Ph.D.

He is a member of the Madrid Bar Association.