

Ira Ryk-Lakhman

Ira Ryk-Lakhman is an MPhil/PhD Student at University College London (UCL), supervised by Dr Martins Papatrakis and Prof. Roger O'Keefe. She is researching the protection and regulation of foreign investments and investors in times of hostilities. Ira has a varied research interests in the field of Public International Law namely, Law of Treaties, International Dispute Resolution, and International and Commercial Arbitration.

Ira holds an LL.M from UCL (distinction) and an LL.B from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (magna cum laude). Ira previously worked as an associate at the private sector, specializing in Dispute Resolution and Financial Regulations and had clerked for a several judges in different jurisdiction (New York, Jerusalem, London). She serves as the Managing Editor of the UCL Journal of Law and Jurisprudence, teaching and research assistant, and a member of the ASIL Women in International Law Mentoring Program.