FAFSA Status

The University has not yet received your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to apply for aid. If you have not done so already, please submit a FAFSA to the federal processor online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Be sure to list the correct school code so that the processor will route your FASFA to the correct university office:

- Law students' school code: E00506
- Medical students' school code: E00398
- All other students' school code: 002325

If you are an international student, you are not eligible to file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Please click the financial aid tabs above to review information about other aid that may have been awarded to you.

Dear [Name],

We are pleased to provide you with your financial aid information for the 2016-2017 academic year. Your cost of attendance for the academic year will be approximately $77,113.38 for an Out-of-State Resident. This cost of attendance is designed to meet your tuition as well as living expense needs for the first two semesters of enrollment. The information below details the loans, scholarships, and grants, as applicable, that you have already been awarded. You will not automatically receive Grad PLUS loans, but you may apply for Grad PLUS loans up to the amount listed here by following the link below at Grad PLUS/Alternative loan eligibility. Your Grad PLUS/Alternative loan eligibility is the maximum amount you can borrow for the academic year, but many students find it possible to live on less. We strongly encourage you to create a budget for yourself before completing a loan request.
