Dr. F. E. Robbins, for the committee consisting of himself, the Dean of the Graduate School, and the Librarian, which was requested to review the list of societies to which the University pays dues as an institutional member (page 278–280), recommended the continuance of membership in all of the institutions there listed (see also page 682).

The President filed with the Regents a letter from Mr. Bryson D. Horton, Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Horace H. Rackham and Mary A. Rackham Fund, giving notice that the agreement appearing in the Regents’ Proceedings of September (pages 683–687) had been duly executed by the Trustees of the Horace H. Rackham and Mary A. Rackham Fund on October 8.

The President filed the following statement, and on motion the proposed resolution was adopted and ordered to be spread upon the records, with a copy to the family of Professor Wilgus:—

I regret to report the death of Professor Emeritus Horace Lafayette Wilgus, formerly of the Law faculty, which took place suddenly on the afternoon of Tuesday, October 8, as the result of a heart attack. Professor Wilgus was 76 years old and had been retired since 1929. An appreciation of his services to the Law School, written by Dean Bates at the time of his retirement, appears in the Regents’ Proceedings for February 21, 1929, page 896. He was for thirty-four years in active service as Professor of Law and won a national reputation as a legal scholar, especially in the field of corporation law. I recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Regents have learned with deep sorrow of the death of Professor Emeritus Horace L. Wilgus, eminent legal scholar and teacher, for thirty-four years a respected member of the faculty of the Law School, and greatly beloved by his students and his colleagues, be it

Resolved, That in Professor Wilgus’ death the University of Michigan has sustained the loss of one who had contributed largely during his active career to the prestige of this institution and its law school, and be it further

Resolved, That the Regents hereby convey their heartfelt sympathy to Professor Wilgus’ surviving family.

The President filed the following statement, and on motion the proposed resolution was adopted and ordered to be spread upon the records, with a copy to the family of Dr. Dalby:—

I report with regret the death of Dr. Robert G. W. Dalby, Instructor in Obstetrics and Gynecology in the Medical School, which took place September 29, 1935, as the result of an automobile accident. Dr. Dalby was in his twenty-ninth year. He was a native of Mt. Clemens, Michigan, and a graduate of the University of Michigan, receiving the degrees A.B. in 1930 and M.D. in 1931. I recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Regents have been informed of the death, by accident, on September 29, 1935, of Dr. Robert George William Dalby, an alumnus of the University of Michigan and a member of the faculty of the Medical School; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Regents hereby record their sorrow at the untimely death of a young graduate of this University who manifested promise of distinguished success in his profession and had already rendered valuable service to the Medical School and the University Hospital, and that they extend to the family of Dr. Dalby their sincere sympathy in their bereavement.
