UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN LAW LIBRARY

LEXIS/NEXIS and WESTLAW ACCESS OPTIONS for NON-LAW PATRONS

Listed below are some options for patrons who do not have access to LEXIS/NEXIS or WESTLAW at the University of Michigan Law School according to the terms of our educational contract.

LEXIS/NEXIS ACADEMIC

LEXIS/NEXIS Academic is available to all University of Michigan Network users and all Library patrons. It contains many of the legal materials available via LEXIS, including caselaw, statutes, regulations and legal journals. It can be accessed at: <http://web.lexis-nexis.com/universe/> from any computer within the University of Michigan Network.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN BUSINESS STUDENTS

University of Michigan Kresge Business Administration Library (734-764-9464)

Students with valid IDs currently enrolled in the Business School have access to LEXIS/NEXIS at the Kresge Business Administration Library. LEXIS/NEXIS may be used for course work only.

FEE-BASED SERVICES

1. Wayne State Law Library, 468 W. Ferry Mall, Detroit, MI 48202 (313-577-3925)

Wayne also provides free access to Lexis/Nexis Academic for all Library patrons.

2. LEXIS (1-800-543-6862)

For a fixed monthly fee, solo practitioners can subscribe to one or more state-specific specialty databases. This can be a cost-effective alternative for new attorneys or small firms.

Lexis can be accessed using a credit card on a pay-per-search method. See <http://www.lexisnexis.com/> for more information on “Ala Carte!”

3. Westlaw (1-800-WESTLAW)

Westlaw can be accessed using a credit card on a pay-per-search method. See “Westlaw by Credit Card” at <http://creditcard.westlaw.com/> for more information.
