

Reserving the Group Study Rooms

Two group study rooms are available for reservation on the Sub-3 level of the Law Library.

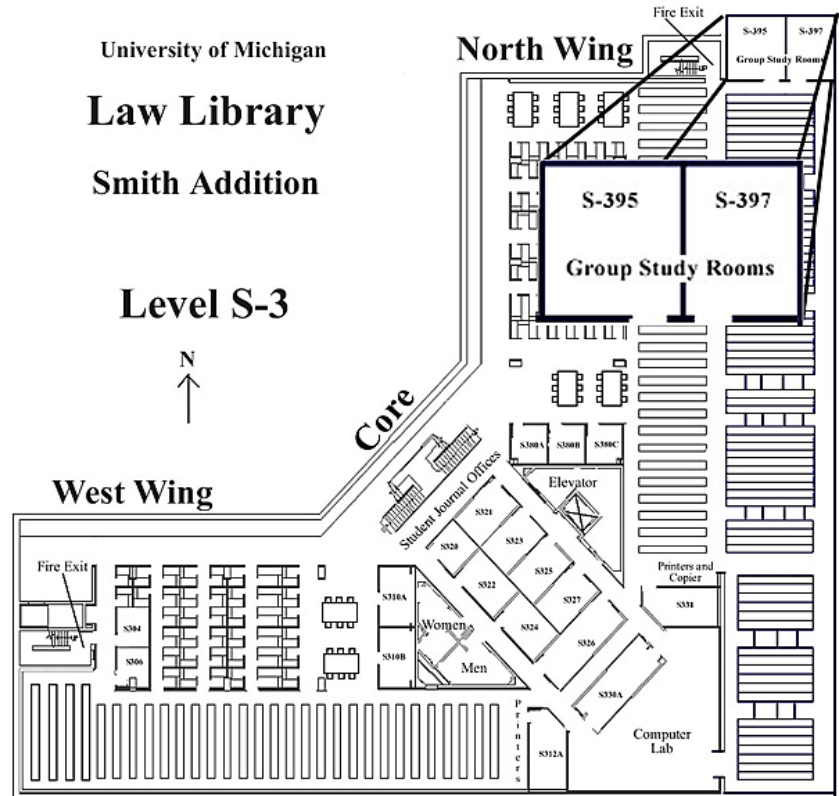

Each contains seating and tables, as well as chalkboards and wireless access.

- S-395 seats 8
- S-397 seats 6

View and make group study room reservations : <http://tiny.cc/RoomRes>

Quick Links:

- On the Law Library's webpage;
- shortcuts on the desktops of the public computers in the Law Library and in the computer labs;
- If you use your laptop to view and manage room reservations, bookmark the url.

- You will be prompted to create a login and password for the reservations site to make reservations.
  - You don't need to login to the reservations site to view the calendar.
  - Once you have created a login and password, remember to log in at the very top, right corner to make future reservations.
  - Once request has been submitted or changed, LOG OUT.
- Reservations:
  - May be made up to 30 days in advance or at the time you need to use the room;
  - May be for up to 2 hours at a time;
  - Are for groups of 2 or more (use the dropdown menu to indicate the number in your group on the online reservations site);
  - Will be confirmed and reminders sent by email;
  - Are necessary to assure room availability; those using an unreserved room must forfeit to someone who reserves it for the same time period.
- Food is not allowed in these rooms.
- To resolve questions or problems, visit or call the Circulation Desk on S-2 (734-764-4252.)