

Slide 1
This tutorial will continue the introduction to the Lexis Nexis Congressional electronic resource.

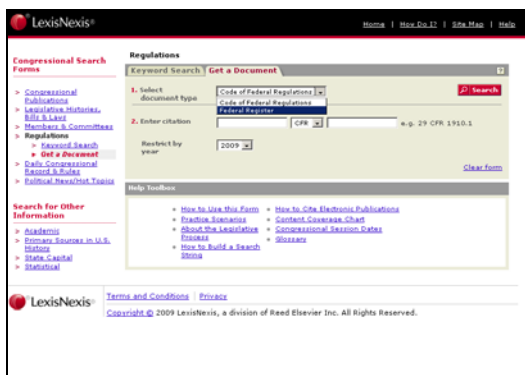

Slide 2
We will discuss how to use the Regulations Search tool, the Congressional Record and Rules tool, and the Political News and Hot Topics search tool.

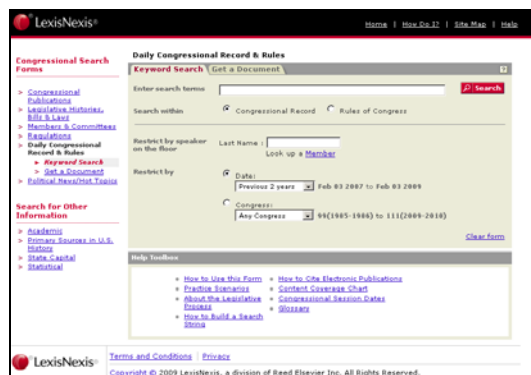

Slide 3
The Regulations Search Tool allows you to search regulations in the Code of Federal Regulations or the Federal Register. In the Regulations Search Tool, there are two search forms: Keyword and Get a Document. The Keyword search form performs a keyword search in the text of the resources. You must choose to search either the Code of Federal Regulations or the Federal Register.

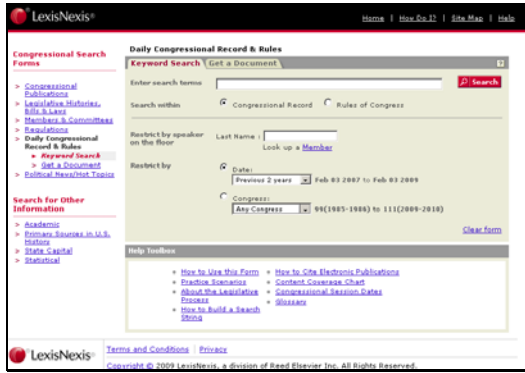

Slide 4
The Get a Document search by form is useful to locate a document when you already have its citation.

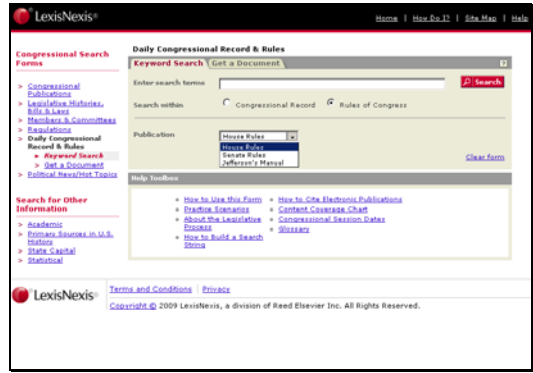

Slide 5
You may retrieve regulations published within either the Code of Federal Regulations or the Federal Register.

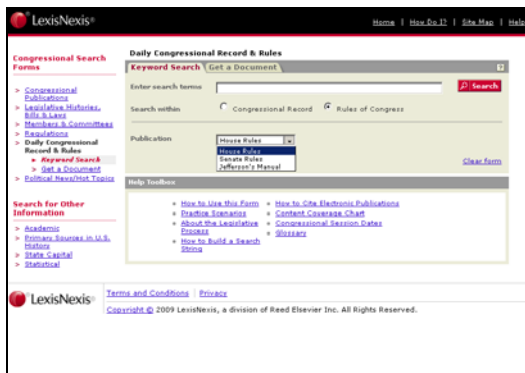

Slide 6
The Congressional Record and Rules Search Tool allows you to search the Congressional Record, the official Record of proceedings and debates in Congress. This tool also allows you to search the Rules of Congress, the official House and Senate Rules, as well as Jefferson's Manual of Parliamentary Practice. In the Congressional Records and Rules Search Tool, there are two search forms: Keyword and Get a Document. The Keyword search form performs a keyword search in the full text of the Congressional Record and the resources for the Rules of Congress.

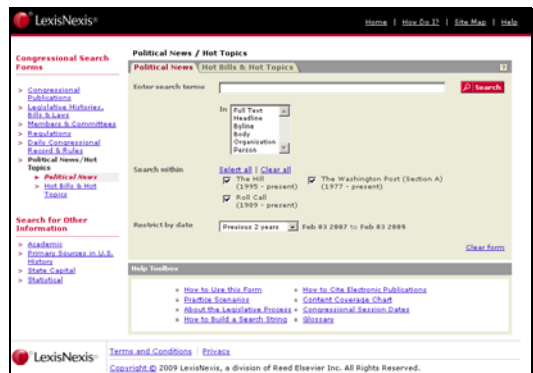

Slide 7
You must choose to search either the Congressional Record or the Rules of Congress. In the Keyword search form for the Congressional Record you can narrow your search by the name of the speaker and the date of the record.

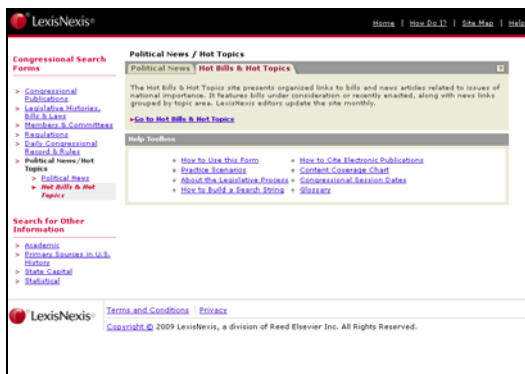

Slide 8
For Rules of Congress you can narrow your search according to the publication.

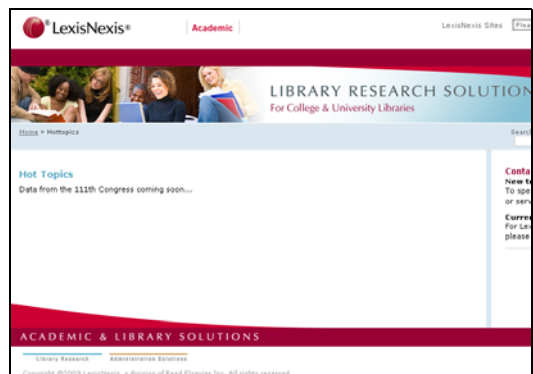

Slide 9-10
The Get a Document search form is useful to locate a document when you already have its citation.

Slide 12-14
The Political News/Hot Topics Search Tool allows you to search the Washington D.C. news publications, and bills, bill tracking reports, bill discussions and articles on current affairs topics. In the Political News/Hot Topics Search Tool, there are two search forms: Political News and Hot Bills and Hot Topics. The Political News search form performs a keyword search. You can narrow your search results by the location of the keyword, the publication you'd like to search in and the date of the article.

Slide 15
The Hot Bills and Hot Topics search form links a webpage updated by Lexis Nexis of recent topics in the news.

Slide 16
You can browse this page for current issues and bills that received national attention.
