

THE DEAN ACHESON
LEGAL STAGE PROGRAM

AT THE COURT OF JUSTICE OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

THE 2014-2015 DEAN ACHESON LEGAL STAGE PROGRAM

The United States Embassy in Luxembourg is pleased to announce that it is accepting applications for the Dean Acheson Legal Stage (traineeship/internship) Program in Luxembourg at the Court of Justice of the European Union for 2013-2014. These stage opportunities for periods of not more than three months are offered to a limited number of students or recent graduates from select U.S. law schools. Applications must be received by the U.S. Embassy in Luxembourg by April 1, 2014.

AVAILABLE STAGE PERIODS AT THE EUROPEAN COURT

There are two possible Dean Acheson Legal Stage periods for 2014-2015:

Fall Term (mid-September to mid-December)

Spring Term (mid-February to mid-May)

Some flexibility regarding dates may be possible at the discretion of the Judge or Advocate General to whom the Dean Acheson stagiaire is attached. Exact dates will be determined by the calendar of the Court. The maximum stage period is three months due to Luxembourg visa requirements for non-EU citizens.

CATEGORIES OF DEAN ACHESON LEGAL STAGE

Three types of stage are available:

1. With a Judge of the Court of Justice

The Dean Acheson stagiaire works in the Chambers of a Judge of the Court of Justice in association with his or her referendaires (law clerks). The stagiaire is expected to assist the Judge and his or her referendaires as required. This experience offers an unparalleled opportunity to gain insight into a judicial process characteristic of the European Court, but very different from the American approach, involving a high degree of intellectual teamwork. Strong French language skills are essential.

2. With an Advocate General of the Court of Justice

The Dean Acheson stagiaire works in the Chambers of an Advocate General of the Court of Justice in association with his or her referendaires. The stagiaire takes part in the research and writing of the Advocate General's opinions, an experience most akin to a traditional U.S. judicial clerking experience. Advocates General prepare their opinions in their native language. The stagiaire therefore needs to have the language skills appropriate to the Advocate General who selects him or her. A reading knowledge of French is required.

3. With a Judge of the General Court

The Dean Acheson stagiaire works in the Chambers of a Judge of the General Court, assisting him or her in connection with cases before the General Court. Candidates for this stage should have a strong background in antitrust/competition law. A reading knowledge of French is required.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The purpose of the Dean Acheson Legal Stage Program is to promote mutual understanding between the peoples of the United States and the European Union in the context of the legal profession. It is therefore open to American citizens and legal permanent residents only. Priority will be given to applicants who have completed three years of law school and who have a strong knowledge of Community Law. As noted above, some knowledge of French is required, varying with the type of stage. Knowledge of an EU language other than French and English is an advantage, and generally necessary for a stage with an Advocate General.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applications must include a completed application form and graduate and undergraduate transcripts.

All applications must first be submitted to each law school's administrator for review. After initial screening, each law school administrator should forward via e-mail a maximum of three (3) endorsed applications to the U.S. Embassy in Luxembourg using address: LuxembourgPublicAffairs@state.gov. Each complete application and accompanying transcripts should be saved as PDF documents and sent in a single e-mail. Applications for either stage period must be received at the Embassy by April 1, 2014.

After review, the Embassy will forward approved application materials to the Court of Justice for review and circulation among the Judges and Advocates General, according to the applicant's stated preferences.

Individual Judges and Advocates General will select Dean Acheson stagiaires from the lists submitted and the European Court of Justice will notify the Embassy and the applicants of their selection by the end of July 2014.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

No U.S. Government funds are available to assist applicants chosen for Dean Acheson Legal stages. Dean Acheson stages are unpaid, and the European Court of Justice does not make any funds available to support Dean Acheson stagiaires. Dean Acheson stagiaires are responsible for the full cost of their transportation, room and board while participating in the Dean Acheson stage program.

PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS 2014/15

American University	University of Alabama
Boston University	University of California – Berkeley
Columbia University	University of California – Los Angeles
Cornell University	University of Chicago
Duke University	University of Michigan
Fordham University	University of Minnesota
Georgetown University	University of Pennsylvania
George Washington University	University of Pittsburgh
Harvard University	University of Southern California
New York University	University of Texas at Austin
Northwestern University	University of Virginia
Seton Hall University	Vanderbilt University
Stanford University	Washington University in St. Louis
Southern Methodist University	Yale University

INQUIRIES

Questions concerning this program may be addressed to:

Public Affairs Office
U.S. Embassy Luxembourg
Tel. +352 46 01 23 ext 2121
Fax +352 26 27 04 37
<http://Luxembourg.USEmbassy.gov>
LuxembourgPublicAffairs@state.gov