

Wrongful Conviction Day 2019

THE REGISTRY REACHES 2500 EXONERATIONS

The National Registry of EXONERATIONS

On October 2, 2019, The National Registry of Exonerations reached a total of 2,500 exonerations, and 22,094 years lost. To mark this milestone and the annual International Wrongful Conviction Day, we are launching our Instagram account. Follow @exonerationlist to see daily postings of exonerations, past and present.

“WE TELL STORIES AND WE COUNT THINGS.”

YEARS

47 exonerees have spent 30+ years wrongfully incarcerated. Read their stories on our "Longest Incarcerations" page.

STATES

Explore our "Interactive Data Display" to easily navigate exonerations by state, contributing factors, race, gender, and more.

STORIES

Keep track of exonerations as they happen. Our researchers post cases every week—don't miss out on a single exoneration.

NUMBERS

The latest statistics on false convictions are at your fingertips in our online database. Search and filter the raw data on exonerations.

The National Registry of Exonerations is a non-profit research project powered by donors like you. Make a gift today.

The Registry is housed at the Newkirk Center for Science & Society at the University of California - Irvine: 234 Pereira Drive, Room 5544, Irvine, CA 92697. Change your email preferences here or unsubscribe.