

Bettina Rentsch

Bettina Rentsch is a 2016 LL.M. candidate and Grotius Fellow at the University of Michigan Law School. She graduated with honors from the University of Freiburg, Germany, in 2013, and from the University of Geneva's Transnational Law Certificate Program in 2010. As of 2013, she has worked on a PhD thesis on European Conflicts Regulation at the University of Heidelberg's Institute for Foreign and Comparative Private Law. Next to her PhD project, Bettina held Visiting Scholar positions at the European University Institute in Florence (2013), and UC Berkeley (2014), and has authored and co-authored a number of journal articles on European Conflicts Law, Conflicts Regulation, and International Law.