

Luwam Dirar

Dr. Luwam Dirar is a Senior Research Fellow at Max Planck Foundation for International Peace and Rule of Law. Luwam holds a J.S.D. and LL.M. from Cornell Law School and LL.B. from Asmara University. Before joining the Max Planck, Luwam co-founded EriLaws and worked on access to justice and rule of law in Eritrea and South Sudan. She has been a visiting researcher at the Institute for Global Policy and Law of Harvard Law School, visiting scholar at the Centre for International and Comparative Law of Pretoria University, visiting lecturer at Saint Augustine University Law School of Tanzania, and a research associate at Weatherhead Centre of Faculty of Arts and Sciences of Harvard University. Luwam has consulted for European Asylum Service Office, Article 19, and Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, and she has served as a legal advisor to the Minister of Justice of Eritrea. Her research and scholarship interests include comparative law, feminist international law and international relations, international economic law, and African customary law.