European and European Union Studies Graduate Certificate
For U-M Law Students

You must take:

• European Union Law (LAW 664)
• Two additional courses on Europe (6 credits), one of which must be outside the Law School (e.g., political science, economics, or business)*

And fulfill the following components:

• Third-year competency in a language spoken in the EU (other than English)
• Summer work at AIRE Centre/EU-focused internship, or an additional 3-credit course/independent research*
• Research seminar leading to a faculty-approved final paper/project*

For further information, visit ii.umich.edu/ces.

*Course selection must be approved by the Director of the European Legal Studies Program, Daniel Halberstam, and Law School Assistant Dean for Student Life, Bayrex Marti. This graduate certificate is open to all enrolled law students. Please note that certificate students must earn at least 6 credits beyond the minimum needed for their Law School graduation. For more information, please contact Director Halberstam or Assistant Dean for International Affairs, Theresa Kaiser-Jarvis.