

CLARA BELFIELD
AND HENRY BATES
OVERSEAS
FELLOWSHIPS

The Will of Helen Bates Van Tyne (1896-1980)

CLARA BELFIELD AND HENRY MOORE BATES traveling fellowship for a student who has completed two or more years in the LAW SCHOOL to travel to a foreign country to study the legal and political institutions. The selection of a recipient by the Dean and Faculty shall be based not only on scholarship but also on integrity of character and capability of leadership.

MICHIGAN LAW
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

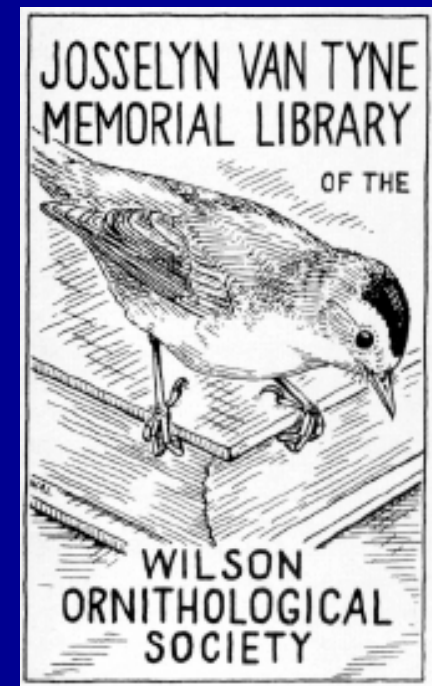

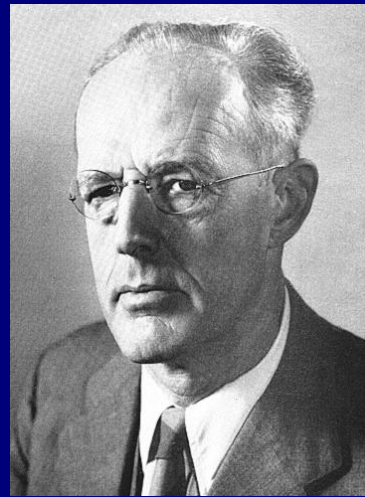

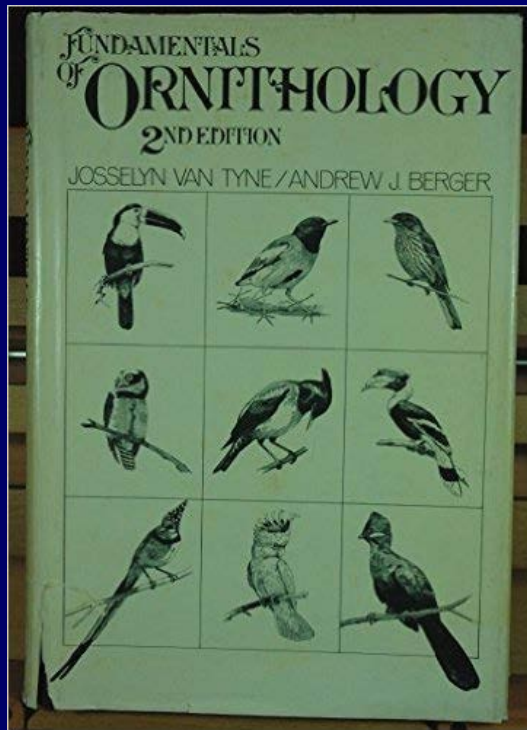

Henry M. Bates

Dean of University of Michigan Law School, 1910-1939

MICHIGAN LAW
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Josselyn Van Tyne

Curator of Birds at University of Michigan Museum of Zoology, 1931-1957

The Will of Helen Bates Van Tyne (1896-1980)

CLARA BELFIELD AND HENRY MOORE BATES traveling fellowship for a student who has completed two or more years in the LAW SCHOOL to travel to a foreign country to study the legal and political institutions. The selection of a recipient by the Dean and Faculty shall be based not only on scholarship but also on integrity of character and capability of leadership.

Award Data

- $125,000 to give
- 10-20 applications approved each year
- 70-75% of applicants are successful
- Lengths vary from 2 weeks to 12 months
- Awards vary from $2,000 to $14,000
- $5,000 - $7,500 average award
- 3 months average length

Where Do They Go?

- Europe
 - Belgium
 - England
 - Moldova
 - Spain
 - Switzerland
- Middle East
 - Israel
- South America
 - Brazil
- Asia
 - India
- Africa
 - Egypt
 - Ethiopia
 - Kenya
 - South Africa
 - Tunisia

What type of work do they do?

- Clerk for Supreme Court
- Death penalty appeals
- Draft legal guidelines for e-learning
- Administer and develop rule of law training programs
- Human trafficking clinic
- Legal Aid Center
- International Finance Corporation
- International Organization for Migration
- Research for a UN Treaty Body
- Environmental law research
- Complete working papers: refugee rights; EU anti-trust and competition law
- Research land rights

Application Requirements

- Application Cover Sheet
- Proposal, including budget
- Resume
- Unofficial Law School transcript
- Current class schedule
- Letter of recommendation from Law School faculty
- Invitation letter

Proposal Components

- Explanation of how this project contributes to your educational or professional development
- Detailed budget
- Total amount requested

Budget

- Airfare
- Ground transportation
- Housing
- Groceries/food
- Household expenses
- Personal expenses
- Utilities
- Internet
- Cell phone
- Visa
- Travel insurance ($1.15/day + $5 admin fee)
- Language lessons

Additional Application Information

- Application deadline: Wednesday, November 1, 2017
- Project lengths can vary
- Projects must begin between December 1, 2017 and December 31, 2018

Information

<http://www.law.umich.edu/mlawglobal/internationalopportunities/fellowshipsandfundingopportunities/Pages/batesfellowships.aspx>

Center for International and Comparative Law
Suite 212, Hutchins Hall

Theresa Kaiser-Jarvis, Asst. Dean for International Affairs: tkjlaw@umich.edu