In 2016 there were 29 Conviction Integrity Units in the United States

A Conviction Integrity Unit (CIU) is a division of a prosecutorial office that works to prevent, identify, and correct false convictions.

50% of all CIUs have not been involved in any exonerations.