L. Frequently Asked questions regarding the inmate telephone system:
1. What is my PAN number? Your PAN number is your inmate number followed by the 4 digit number you were issued at orientation. If you have a 5 digit inmate number, you must first enter a zero. Example: Your inmate number is 12345 and your PAN number is 1111. You must enter your PAN number as 123451111 when prompted to do so. PAN numbers must be 10 digits together. Example: Your inmate number is 9999 and your PAN number is 2222. Since your inmate number is only 5 digits, remember you have to enter a zero first. Your PAN number would be 0999992222. PAN numbers must be 10 digits together.
2. When I call a number, it says the number is “restricted”. Why? The new phone system requires a billing name and address. If an inmate calls a number and a billing name and address is not set up, it will say restricted. Securus then sends an automated message to that number stating that “An inmate at a correctional facility is trying to call you, please call us at 1-800-844-6591 to set up an account.” Once the billing name and address is established, the call will be allowed to connect. The phone monitors or any other staff cannot bypass or speed up this procedure. Your family is responsible for setting up the account to receive your calls.
3. How can I make changes to my phone list? The Add/Drop schedule is the first Monday through Friday of every month. Changes are made by you via an inmate phone do not submit anything to the phone monitor or your counselor.
4. How much do calls to my family and friends cost? It is 32 cents per minute and if prepaid it is 24 cents per minute. To set up prepaid accounts please contact Securus at 1-800-844-6591.

Appendix A
INMATE ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES SUMMARY
Revised 1/1/08

What are Administrative Remedies?
Administrative Remedies are the means for an inmate to request a formal review of any action or decision that is within the scope of authority of the Commissioner of Correction. There are three types of administrative remedy: (1) a grievance, (2) an appeal of a discretionary decision, and (3) a property claim. The grievance procedure, appeal procedure and property claim procedures are set out in Administrative Directive 9.6, Inmate administrative Remedies. This summary provides general information about these procedures. A copy of the Inmate Administrative Remedies directive is available in the library, and may be provided upon request.

When Can You file For An Administrative Remedy?
For a Grievance or a Property Claim: If you have a grievance or a property claim, first try to resolve it by sending a completed Inmate Request Form (CN 9601) to the staff member who oversees the area of your complaint. Each housing unit should have a list that identifies the staff members to whom inmate requests should be addressed for a specific issue or topic. If this action does not resolve the problem, to file a grievance use the Inmate Administrative Remedy Form (CN 9602), or to file a property claim, use the Lost/damaged Property Investigation Form (CN9608).

For an Appeal of a Discretionary Decision: Discretionary decisions include disciplinary decisions (you must have pled ‘not guilty’ at a hearing to appeal a disciplinary decision), classification decisions, special management assignments, Security Risk Group designations, media review decisions, furlough decisions and decisions about issues related to the Americans with Disabilities Act. Use the Inmate Administrative Remedy form (CN 9602) to file an appeal.

Filing for an administrative remedy must be made within fifteen (15) calendar days of the action taken, or discovery of the problem.

How Do You File?
Complete the Inmate Administrative Remedy form (CN 9602 or Lost/Damaged Property Investigation Form (CN 9608) and deposit it in the “Administrative Remedies” Box located in your housing unit.

What Happens Next?
The Administrative Remedy boxes are regularly collected and the filings are formally recorded by the administrative Remedies Coordinator (ARC). The ARC routes the grievance, appeal or property claim to the appropriate decision-maker. There are times standards for the decision-maker to decide the issue and respond to you in writing. In some cases there are additional steps that you may take if you are not satisfied. The steps differ for each of the remedies; they are described in the response that you received.

Exhaustion of Administrative Remedy
Exhaustion of administrative remedy means that you have reached the end of the grievance, appeal or claim process and no further response or action will be taken by the Department.

Administrative Directive 9.6, Inmate Administrative Remedy
The procedures and standards for the Department’s Administrative Remedies Process is fully set out in Administrative Directive 9.6, Inmate Administrative Remedies. You should make yourself familiar with its provisions and refer to it for specific information pertaining to an issue you may have, and how to address it. This summary is intended for information only and, of itself, establishes no procedures or standards.

In Case of Emergency
Contact a staff member if you have an emergency and explain the situation.

Policy Rational

The Supreme Court of the United States had held that the Constitution of the United States only requires a state to provide its inmates with access to a law library or access to persons trained in the law. Bounds v. Smith, 40 U.S. 817, 97 S. Ct. 1491, 52 L. Ed. 2d 72 (1977). The choice of which alternative to provide inmates with access to a law library lies with the state, not with the inmate. Connecticut has chosen to rely on access to persons trained in the law in order to comply with the requirements of Bounds.

SPECIAL NOTE:

The information contained in this handbook is not all-inclusive. Its purpose is not to repeat what is contained in the Hartford Correctional Unit Directives. Rather, the Handbook serves to give the inmate a quick reference to information that is most relevant. Please also note that information and schedules are subject to change with little notice. Hence, pay attention to your unit/block bulletin or information boards, as well as all “Notices to Inmates” and information received from your unit/block staff.
