HALAWA MEDIUM SECURITY FACILITY
INMATE GUIDELINES
GENERAL POPULATION

Inmates are subject to all State of Hawaii Laws, Department of Public Safety and Halawa Correctional Facility (HCF) policies and procedures, rules, and regulations. Any deviation from these guidelines may be subject to a program hearing and/or disciplinary action/criminal charges.

The following are the guidelines for inmates placed in the General Population of the Halawa Medium Security Facility.

CONDUCT/BEHAVIOR

1. Inmates shall not govern or order other inmates.
2. Inmates shall not yell, whistle, etc., at any staff member under any circumstances.
3. Inmates are expected to display a respectful attitude and behavior toward staff and visitors of the HCF, at all times.
4. Inmates shall not be involved in or associated with any gang related activity or possess gang related property. Gang related activity and gang related property may be determined with the help of the Honolulu Police Department and/or other law enforcement agencies.

SELF-REPRESENTATION

5. There shall be no group representation. Inmates shall be self-represented unless specifically given prior written authorization by the Warden.

OUTSIDE FACILITY MOVEMENTS (DOCTOR, COURT, ETC.)

6. Inmates may wear civilian attire consistent with Rule #71 when a defendant is in a jury trial.
7. Inmates shall wear uniform with appropriate underwear and slippers for all other outside movements unless specifically authorized by the Warden. No shorts, sweatshirts, and socks/shoes allowed.
8. Inmates shall be listed on an Inmate Pass when leaving the secured perimeter of the facility and escorted by a workline supervisor. Inmates who are escorted off the facility through Intake and who are logged in the Temporary Leaves Log do not require an Inmate Pass.
9. Inmates must be dressed in uniform with slippers when leaving the module. There shall be no cuffing of pants or shirt, blousing of pants, or tucking in of pants or shirt. Shorts and T-shirt may be worn when going to and from recreation.

10. Work uniforms shall be used only for work purposes and may be used during meals if the inmate is scheduled to work on a shift after the meal. Inmates shall use the brown two-piece uniform for any other movement (i.e., visit, chapel, education, medical unit, etc.). Inmates assigned to Industries and Correctional Industries worklines may remove the top half (shirt) of the uniform while at a work site upon consent of the workline supervisor. A T-shirt must be worn if the top half of a uniform is removed (no bare back). Protective footwear shall be worn on the worksite at all times.

11. Identification (I.D.) badges must be worn on the outside of the pocket with the picture I.D. observable. Inmates who do not have an I.D. or who have one that is excessively damaged shall not be allowed to leave the module. Lost or damaged I.D. may result in an assessment of a $5.00 replacement fee which shall be determined by the Unit Team Manager. If shirt has no pocket, I.D. will be worn on V-shape area of uniform shirt.

12. Inmates shall have an Inmate Pass when moving individually unescorted within the facility. Group movements such as worksites, programs for chapel and education, and recreation at the gym do not require an Inmate Pass.

13. Inmates shall walk in a single file on the right side of Main Street relative to the direction of movement and if necessary, shall cross Main Street perpendicular to their destination at designated crossing points. There shall be no communication between Inmates on Main Street and Inmates shall not talk to any staff member on Main Street. Smaller groups of Inmates shall defer to larger groups of Inmates moving on Main Street. No urination, defecation, or spitting allowed.

14. Inmates shall not take any property out of their modules except for materials necessary for assigned programs.

15. Inmates are subject to frisk/strip searches upon leaving from and returning to the module.

202. Only persons listed on an Inmate’s Approved Visitors List shall be permitted to donate money to an Inmate’s account.

203. Incoming monies may be accepted through the mail in the form of money orders and cashier’s checks.

204. Incoming monies (money orders, cashier’s checks, and cash) may be brought to the HCF on Mondays through Fridays between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., excluding holidays.

205. Personal checks shall not be accepted at any time. All checks and money orders shall be made payable to the “Halawa Correctional Facility” with the inmate’s name written on the item so the money is deposited to the proper inmate account. The donor’s full name and address should also be written on the item. All items submitted improperly shall be returned to the sender.

206. Inmates may be allowed to send money from their spendable account to persons who are immediate family members and listed on their Approved Visitors List upon approval by the Unit Team. All requests to have money sent out from the inmate’s spendable account will be at the discretion of the Unit Team based upon verification of information.

207. As indicated on HCF policy, drug testing may be conducted for cause, or as part of a random screening program conducted at regular or irregular intervals to effectively control the unauthorized use of drugs of all types and the abuse of medicinal substances for other than medical use, in efforts to provide a safe and secure environment for the mutual benefit of staff and inmates.

208. An accumulation of three (3) various negative 105’s or write-ups within a six (6) month period may result in the inmate facing the Program Committee or designated staff members for possible reprogramming and loss of privileges and workline opportunities.

209. If an inmate receives two (2) identical 105s or negative write-ups within a six (6) month period, the inmate may be subject to a misconduct report for disobeying an order, and appropriate disciplinary action.
191. No books, magazines, or other donations may be brought via inmate family and friends. All personal items not issued shall be bought through the commissary unless approved by the Unit Team.

192. Excess personal property must be picked up within thirty (30) days from the date of storage in the Property Room. Only persons on the inmate's Approved Visitors List or Approved Correspondence List shall be permitted to pickup or drop-off items for an inmate.

GROOMING STANDARDS

193. Inmates shall shower daily and are encouraged to shave daily.

194. Grooming standards include bathing, brushing teeth, combing hair, and attending to personal needs. Fingernail tips shall not exceed 1/16" or extend beyond the fingertips whichever is shorter.

195. Tattooing and use of (artificial) make-up are prohibited.

196. Inmates will be required to keep their hair, beards, sideburns, and mustaches in accordance with health and proper hygiene.

197. Food service workers will be required to wear hats or hairnets. Hair will be subject to complete search procedures at any time to maintain security and prevent contraband introduction.

WORKLINE ASSIGNMENT

198. Inmates shall be assigned to worklines based on their date of transfer to the HCF, availability of work assignments, educational level, institutional adjustment, misconduct history, completion of safety training class, and prior work experience. An inmate may be reassigned and/or removed from any workline assignment without prior hearing or notification due to security reasons and the good government of the facility with the approval of the Harden/Unit Team.

199. Inmates assigned to the Food Services Unit must submit to medical examinations consistent with the Board of Health regulations for food handlers.

200. Inmates shall report to work daily unless there is a legitimate excuse (memo) indicating otherwise.

201. There shall be no talking and fraternizing between inmates on different worklines at any time.

QUAD MOVEMENTS

16. In Special Holding:

a. All cell doors shall remain locked at all times unless authorized or permitted to be opened.

b. Only one inmate at a time shall be allowed out of his cell when authorized or permitted. While out of his cell, he shall go directly to and from his authorized destination and not loiter, visit (speaking) to other inmates, or in any way delay his return to his cell.

c. Whenever an inmate is authorized to be moved out of his cell that inmate shall be leg-ironed and waist-chainined at all times during his absence.

d. All inmates in Special Holding shall be strip-searched upon leaving and returning to Special Holding.

e. Inmates must be properly dressed in HCF uniform (ORANGE) and slippers must be worn at all times when leaving his cell except for legitimate reasons. (Exceptions: Uniforms do not have to be worn at recreation and upon being escorted to court jury trials.)

17. All quad doors shall remain locked at all times unless unlocked by a staff member.

18. Inmates may be allowed out of their quads when authorized by a staff member. The inmate shall go directly to and from his authorized destination and not loiter or visit with other inmates or staff, or in any way delay his return to his cell.

19. Inmates may be allowed freedom of movement (consistent with Rules #25, #26, and #28) within the assigned quad and dayroom area after breakfast until final lockdown for the day, except during lockdowns, headcounts, and emergencies. There shall be no movements during headcounts. All inmates will be confined to their cells. Inmates may be allowed into the dayroom after each headcount is cleared.

20. Inmates shall immediately return to their assigned cells prior to ACOs or staff members entering the quad.

21. The television shall be turned off during the quiet period, chow, any lockdown, and when an ACO or staff member enters the quad.
22. Inmates shall have fifteen (15) seconds to return to their cells and lock their doors upon the order of lockdown.

QUAD STANDARDS

23. Blankets, sheets, pillow, pillow cases, laundry bags, mattresses, and footlockers shall be kept in their appropriate places in the cell consistent with Rules #42 and #43. All above items shall not be used on the floor or taken out of the cell, except when cleaning the cell.

24. Any personal property left in the dayroom and shower areas during any lockdown period shall be confiscated.

25. Inmates are not allowed to lie down or sleep in the dayroom. There shall be no sitting on the tables, stairs, and footlockers.

30. Only one (1) inmate shall shower at a time in each shower stall. No showers shall be taken thirty (30) minutes prior to a scheduled lockdown or scheduled headcount.

31. Inmates shall not soap themselves or dry off outside the shower stall.

32. Inmates must be covered with at least a towel or use undershorts when going directly to and from the shower unless he is behind the shower curtain and out of view.

33. Inmates shall not loiter in the shower areas.
169. Publications shall be restricted to guidelines in accordance with HCF policy and procedures and consistent with Rule #68w.

170. Inmates may subscribe to the daily newspaper on Oahu or from the outer islands. Only one subscription shall be allowed for each inmate.

171. Inmates shall submit an inmate request for subscription for the daily newspapers on Oahu for approval by the case manager when a notice of subscription renewal is posted.

172. Inmates shall submit Inmate Request Form for newspaper subscription other than Honolulu Advertiser/Star Bulletin from the outer islands to the Case Manager for approval by the Unit Team. Any newspaper subscription received without prior approval shall be returned to the sender.

173. C.O.D. orders shall not be accepted; all subscriptions must be paid for by the inmate, his family, or friends. Retention of newspapers shall be consistent with Rule #68w.

EXERCISE PERIOD/RECREATION

174. Inmates shall be allowed at least five (5) sets of sixty (60) minute outdoor exercise periods per week except weekends and holidays unless compelling security or safety reasons dictate otherwise.

175. The module recreation yards have out-of-bound areas marked with red lines (i.e., stairwell, under the stairwell, near the back recreation door, etc.). Inmates shall remain outside of the out-of-bound areas to include the areas between the window and entrance sections and the red lines.

176. Inmates shall not climb or put their foot on the recreation yard fence or walls.

177. Water faucet/fountain in the recreation yard shall not be used for the purpose of washing up, showering, or urination.

GYM

178. Inmates shall be afforded the opportunity to use the gym at least once per week by Recreation staff in accordance with the current schedule. All inmates shall obey gym rules. Any infractions may result in the inmate being sent back to the module and/or subject to disciplinary action, including possible loss of privilege of using the gym.

34. Inmates will be given the opportunity to shower at least five (5) times per week for a time not to exceed ten (10) minutes, unless compelling security or safety reasons dictate otherwise. No toothbrush or comb will be brought out of the inmate's cell.

35. Disposable razors will be provided to inmates for use in their cell, five (5) times a week (M-F) except weekends (S/S) or holidays.

36. Inmates shall take showers only in those shower stalls located on the tier of their assigned cell in quads with showers on both tiers.

37. There shall be no exercising in the quad area or in the cell unless authorized by a Medical Needs Memo.

38. Exercises prescribed for medical reasons shall be done in the recreation areas during designated recreational periods.

39. No item shall be given to an ACO or staff member to be passed to another inmate.

40. Inmates shall not deface or mark walls, windows, fixtures, and equipment. Nothing may be hung, taped, or glued on the walls.

41. There shall be no obstruction to the cell and quad doors, light fixtures, vents, and cell windows.

42. Only clothes, laundry bags, towels, and washcloths may be hung on the hooks in the cells. Stringing of clothes lines is not permitted.

43. Footlockers shall be stored under the bunks when not in use. They shall be used to store clothing, reading materials, store order items, and other personal property. Any property found improperly stored shall be subject to removal and confiscation. All property stored in the footlocker shall be considered the property of each respective inmate.

44. The inmate's name shall be written on all of his personal property that is stored outside of his footlocker, the inmate's laundry number shall be written on all clothing and linen, and the laundry number may also be used on smaller items of personal property. Proper writing instruments shall be used to mark the items as appropriate (i.e., permanent marking pen, pencils, pen, etc.). Anything not marked and stored outside of the footlocker shall be subject to confiscation.
45. Final formal standing headcount for the day shall be conducted at approximately 9:30 p.m. All dayroom lights and cell lights shall be turned off by 9:30 p.m. All lights shall be turned off at approximately 4:30 a.m. and 4:00 a.m. for inmates housed in Special Holding, unless otherwise dictated by workline assignments, inmate movements, or emergencies.

46. Cells must be clean, orderly, and ready for inspection at all times. Beds must be properly made with sheets and/or blankets covering the mattress and pillows in pillowcases at all times.

47. Razors shall be available for daily use as scheduled. Exceptions may be made for inmates scheduled for official movements (i.e., early inter-Island trips, etc.).

48. Inmates shall not communicate with inmates from other quads or modules.

49. Inmates shall not pass or borrow/receive any items at any time between quads, cells, or during any movements indoors and outdoors. Inmates in Special Holding shall not pass or receive any items under their cell door or food trap to/from another inmate under any circumstances.

51. Cardboard, cardboard boxes, plastic containers, paper containers, plastic bags, glass containers, cans, or any implement of storage shall not be permitted or stored in an inmate's cell. (Exceptions may be made with the Unit Team's approval (i.e., denture containers, contact lens case, eyeglass case, etc.).

52. Inmates shall not save, store, or leave any empty snack packages, candy wrappers, etc., in the cell or quad area. Said items are to be properly disposed of via the quad trash receptacle. At no time is the cell toilet to be used as a trash receptacle. Any inmate found violating this guideline shall be subject to a misconduct.

53. One religious medallion with chain and one plain wedding band without stones may be permitted upon inspection for suitability by the Unit Team. The religious medallions shall be no larger than 1" x 1" and the chain shall be no larger than 18 inches x 3mm.

161. Inmates shall be permitted one (1) outside store order of a specified amount every month in accordance with department and facility policy and procedures and consistent with Rule #68. Radio's and athletic shoes are exclusive of the outside store order spending limit. The type, style and cost of radios and athletic shoes will be approved by the Harden

162. Outside store order forms shall be completed and submitted to the ACO at the same time that the inside store order is submitted. Any orders received after that time will not be processed.

163. Outside store orders shall be delivered by the Store Clerk as soon as available in accordance with the current schedule.

164. Inmate must have sufficient funds to cover the cost of items ordered through the outside store order. If there are insufficient funds to cover the cost of the entire order, the order will be cancelled.

165. No outside store orders shall be taken out of the modules except for items of clothing that are worn by the inmates.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO PUBLICATIONS/PERIODICALS/NEWSPAPERS

166. Inmates may request to subscribe to a maximum of four (4) publications. Any subscription exceeding the maximum limit of four (4) will be placed in property and must be disposed of within thirty (30) days. Inmates may receive publications only from a publisher, book club or bookstore via subscription or outright purchase. Approved publications will be put on the Inmate authorized subscription list.

167. Inmate requests for subscription or purchase shall be submitted to the Case Manager for approval by the Unit Team. Inmates shall notify the mail clerk through their case manager of subscriptions/purchases approved by the Unit Team. Any subscription received without prior approval shall be returned to the sender. Requests for books through the mail shall include the title of the book and the name of the sender prior to being received at the facility. Any books and magazines received without prior approval will be returned to the sender or placed in property for disposal within thirty (30) days. All publications are subject to review by the Unit Team for suitability at time of delivery to the facility mailroom.

168. C.O.D. orders shall not be accepted; all orders must be paid for by the inmate, his family, or friends.
151. International Collect Long Distance Personal Telephone Calls: Inmates shall be allowed to make international long distance personal collect calls by submitting an Inmate Request Form and subject to the approval of the Case Manager.

152. Those calls shall be counted as part of the minimum two (2) calls allowed under personal telephone calls (see Rule #139). All calls shall be collect using the inmate phone and the party accepting the call shall be responsible for payment for each call. International long distance personal telephone calls shall be fifteen (15) minutes each.

153. Long Distance Legal Calls: Inmates shall be permitted to place Long Distance legal calls to their attorney of record only in accordance with current policy and upon request and approval of the Warden. The case manager shall verify that the inmate has sufficient funds in his spendable account to pay for the call.

154. Each legal call shall be limited to five (5) minutes unless circumstances dictate otherwise and limited to three (3) calls per week in combination with ombudsman and official calls.

155. Emergency Calls: Shall be permitted upon request and approval of the Unit Team in accordance with current policy and procedures.

156. Inmate personal telephone calls is a privilege. Abuse of this privilege may result in a misconduct.

STORE ORDERS

157. Inmates shall be permitted one (1) inside store order of a specified amount once a month consistent with rule #51.

158. All inside store orders shall be completed and submitted to the ACOs by 1:00 p.m. on the Friday prior to the order delivery. Orders received after that time shall not be processed unless authorized by the UTM.

159. Inmate store order shall be delivered by the Store Clerk in accordance with the current schedule.

160. No store orders shall be taken out of the modules except for items of clothing that are worn by inmates. All perishable food items shall be consumed in the cell or dayroom area only.

54. Inmates housed in Special Holding for disciplinary segregation will not be allowed to have a religious medallion with chain in their possession. All religious medallions with chains will be forwarded to Intake with a property receipt and will be returned to the inmate upon completion of disciplinary segregation.

55. All incoming religious medallions and chains shall have a combined value of $40. The chain shall not exceed a $20 value and the medallion shall not exceed a $20 value. A receipt must accompany any incoming jewelry items. This is an elaboration of the existing inmate Guidelines and all jewelry items already retained by the inmate population may be sent out, or, be subject to a maximum monetary amount value of $20 for a chain or for a medallion.

56. A monetary value of up to $75 will be placed on all incoming or existing wedding bands. Any incoming ring shall also have a receipt accompany the item. Existing bands may be sent out if desired, or, be subject to a maximum monetary value of $75.

57. The inmate shall wear the religious medallion, chain and ring at all times, failure to do so may result in a write up.

58. Electronic entertaining devices are not permitted for personal retention except approved radios and headphones.

59. Musical instruments are not permitted.

60. No inmate shall have money in his possession. All money shall be considered contraband and subject to confiscation. There shall be no transferring of money from one HCF inmate account to another.

61. The toilet shall not be used as a disposal or trash receptacle.

62. Inmates shall be assigned to respective cells, bunks, and footlockers. Inmates shall not change their assigned cells, bunks, and footlockers without authorization. Inmates shall not pound, shake, rattle or kick their cell doors.

63. Bunks shall not be partitioned, enclosed, or used for hanging objects. All property on a bunk shall be considered the property of that respective inmate. All items hanging on a bunk shall be subject to confiscation.
64. No item is permitted for retention by the inmate in his cell except for the items listed below, unless specifically authorized by the Unit Team.
