Part I. Corrections

Chapter 3. Adult Services

Subchapter B. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders

§ 341. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders

Editor's Note: This Section contains rules formerly printed in LAC 22:I.341, 343, 345, 347, 349, 351, 353, 355, 357, 359, 361, and 363.

A. Purpose -- to constitute the department's Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders as a regulation.

B. Applicability -- deputy secretary, chief of operations, regional wardens, wardens, director of probation and parole, director of prison enterprises, sheriffs and administrators of local jail facilities and transitional work programs. Each unit head is responsible for ensuring that appropriate unit written policy and procedures are in place to comply with the provisions of this regulation.

C. Policy. It is the secretary's policy that all offenders and employees have reasonable access to and comply with the department's Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders. They are established to help provide structure and organization for the prisons and a framework within which the offender population can expect the disciplinary system to function.

1. Revisions will be accomplished through this regulation under the signature of the secretary.

D. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders

1. This book of disciplinary rules and procedures constitutes clear and proper notice of same for each offender sentenced to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections.

2. It is the policy of the Louisiana Department of Public Safety and Corrections to operate a swift and fair disciplinary process that follows constitutional and statutory standards. The Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders establishes a uniform offender disciplinary process that:

a. maintains order and control of institutional safety;

b. ensures offenders are disciplined fairly;
§ 341. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders, 22 LA ADC Pt I, § 341

c. Ensures constitutional rights are protected;

d. Modifies offender behavior in a positive manner; and

e. Maintains an official record of an offender's disciplinary history.

3. The Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders provide structure and organization for the prisons and a framework within which the offender population can expect the disciplinary system to function. All offenders sentenced to the custody of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, regardless of their housing facility, shall be placed on notice as to the requirements of the Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders by being provided with a copy of the rulebook. All offenders shall be required to sign for the receipt of the rulebook and the signed receipt shall be filed in the offender's master record.

4. The secretary of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections has sole authority to change these rules, regulations and procedures. Utilization of these procedures does not constitute the granting of any enforceable right or privilege to any offender.

5. There are certain classifications or other actions which may be taken that affect an offender's custody status, job classification, housing assignment, institutional assignment and/or ability to participate in institutional programs or activities for which an offender may expect change during the course of his incarceration. Such changes may result from classification decision-making, the imposition of disciplinary penalties or to promote legitimate institutional goals and/or security. Such changes may not be disciplinary penalties in and of themselves. These and any similar changes which result from the action of other department regulations and institutional policies are not considered penalties in the context of the disciplinary process.

6. In the event of a genuine emergency, such as a serious disturbance disrupting normal operations or a natural disaster, the secretary or designee may suspend any and all disciplinary rules and procedures for the duration of the emergency. Full hearings must be held within a reasonable time after the end of the emergency for those offenders who were subjected to loss of good time or failure to earn incentive wages.

E. Definitions

Classification -- a process for determining the needs and requirements of those for whom confinement has been ordered and for assigning offenders to housing units, work assignments and programs according to their needs and existing resources. Classification actions, even if resulting from an incident handled in the disciplinary process, are not disciplinary sanctions.

Confidential Informant -- person whose identity is not revealed to the accused offender but who provides an employee(s) with information concerning misbehavior or planned misbehavior.

Custody Levels -- see established policy and procedures for information regarding the various custody levels and status review procedures.
§ 341. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders, 22 LA ADC Pt I, § 341

Extra Duty -- work to be performed in addition to an offender's regular job assignment as specified by the proper institutional authority. This work is performed without the benefit of incentive wages.

Incentive Pay -- compensation paid to an offender in the physical custody of the department and who is eligible to receive incentive wages and who has performed satisfactory work in the compensation grade in which he has been classified.

Posted Policy -- policy memoranda detailing what behavior is required or forbidden of offenders and generally reflecting the individual needs of the facility. Posted policies must be distributed and posted in such a manner that offenders are placed on notice as to what behavior is required or forbidden and that sanctions may be imposed should the policy be violated.

Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (PREA) -- a federal law enacted to establish a zero-tolerance standard for the incidence of sexual assault within an institutional setting.

Sanction -- a disciplinary penalty.

NOTE: The pronouns “he” and “his” as used herein are for convenience only and are not intended to discriminate against female employees or offenders. Additionally employee, as used herein, refers not only to an employee of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, but also to any individual having the authority to exercise supervision over an offender.

F. Disciplinary Procedures

1. This rulebook contains the disciplinary rules and procedures for offenders remanded to the state's custody. All offenders are required to obey the rules and regulations. The following outlines the procedures that shall be followed when an offender violates a rule.

   a. General Procedures

      i. Reporting Infractions

         (a). When an employee witnesses or has knowledge of any act by an offender that is in violation of the rules and/or posted policies, the employee shall first attempt, if appropriate, to resolve the matter informally. If the violation is observed or brought to the attention of a contract employee, volunteer or institutional visitor, the incident shall be reported to an employee by the person observing or with knowledge of the behavior. Informal resolution may include counseling, verbal reprimand, or the giving of an instruction, warning, or order. Informal resolution is not appropriate for any offense that poses a risk to the security of the institution (such as solicitation of staff to violate a rule or policy, an attempt to establish an inappropriate relationship or possession of contraband).

         (i). If the incident cannot or may not be resolved informally, the employee shall complete a disciplinary report formally charging the offender with violating a rule.
§ 341. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders, 22 LA ADC Pt I, § 341

(ii). The report shall be written by the employee who has reason to believe that an offender has violated, attempted to violate or conspired to violate one or more disciplinary rules.

[a]. An offender who intentionally attempts to violate a disciplinary rule, even if he is unsuccessful, may receive a disciplinary report for attempting to break that rule.

[b]. When two or more persons working in combination for the specific purpose of violating any disciplinary rule may receive a disciplinary report for conspiring to break that rule.

[c]. The description of an incident may include more than one separate and distinct rule violation. It is appropriate to include more than one rule violation on a single disciplinary report.

(iii). The disciplinary report shall include the following information:

[a]. [i]. the accused offender's name, DOC number, housing and job assignment;

[ii]. the reporting officer's name and title;

[iii]. the offense number;

[iv]. the date and time of the offense; and

[v]. a description of the facts of the offense;

[b]. the description of the facts of the offense shall include the name(s) of all the witnesses, the location of the incident and a full statement of the facts underlying the charges;

[c]. a description of any unusual offender behavior, any physical evidence and its disposition, and any immediate action taken, including the use of force.

(b). Upon completion of the disciplinary report, the supervisor shall review the information and forward the report and any supporting documentation to the disciplinary office or designated depository for processing.

(c). If an offender's continued presence in the general population poses a threat to life, property, self, staff or other offenders, or to the security or orderly operation of the institution, or who is the subject of an investigation, may (with the approval of the highest ranking supervisor on duty in the unit where the incident occurred or the shift supervisor) be placed in administrative segregation until his appearance before the disciplinary officer/disciplinary board or classification board.

(d). In instances when an offender is placed in administrative segregation for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor will ensure the documentation is complete and correct and, as needed, investigate to confirm the reasonableness of the allegation or circumstances prompting the assignment. This shall be done prior to the conclusion of the supervisor's tour of duty.

ii. Notice of Disciplinary Report

(a). Offenders shall be served (usually by a correctional officer) with notice of charges at least 24 hours prior to the hearing.

(b). The charges shall be explained to the offender in terms the offender can understand.

(c). Confirmation that the offender was advised of the charges shall be noted on the original of the disciplinary report by evidence of the offender's signature.

(d). If the offender refuses to sign the disciplinary report, the delivering officer shall note the refusal in the offender signature block and initial the box.

b. Counsel and Counsel Substitutes

i. Counsel is an attorney-at-law of the offender's choice who has been retained by the offender.

ii. Counsel substitutes are persons not admitted to the practice of law, but offenders who aid and assist, without cost or fee, an accused offender in the preparation and presentation of his defense and/or appeal.

iii. Counsel substitutes are only those offenders appointed by the warden or designee to assist other offenders with their legal claims, including but not limited to, assistance with filing of administrative remedy procedure requests, disciplinary board appeals and lost property claims. They may be removed from their positions if the warden or designee believes it appropriate.

iv. An offender may request the assistance of counsel or a counsel substitute at any stage of the disciplinary proceeding.

G. Disciplinary Hearings and Sanctions

1. Hearing Procedure
§ 341. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders, 22 LA ADC Pt I, § 341

a. Hearings are designed to provide a fair and impartial review conducted by a disciplinary officer or disciplinary board to determine if a rule infraction(s) occurred, if the charged offender is guilty or not guilty of the charge(s) and, if guilty, the appropriate sanction(s).

b. An investigation report may be submitted to the disciplinary board detailing the facts uncovered in an investigation. If the investigation report is used as evidence in the hearing, a copy of the report must be maintained in the administrative record. In the alternative, the investigator may be called as a witness to present testimony.

2. Disciplinary Officer (Low Court Hearing)

a. A hearing conducted by a ranking security officer (lieutenant or above) or any supervisory level employee from administration or treatment appointed by the warden or designee who conducts hearings of minor violations (Schedule A) and who may impose only designated sanctions.

b. Any disciplinary officer directly involved in the incident or one who is biased for or against the accused cannot hear the case unless the accused waives recusal in writing. (Performance of a routine administrative duty does not necessarily constitute direct involvement or bias.)

c. At these hearings, the accused offender represents himself and is given full opportunity to speak in his own behalf.

d. Counsel substitutes, witnesses or the accusing employee are not permitted in the hearing.

e. Low court hearings are not recorded.

f. Hearings shall be held within seven days of the date of the report, excluding weekends and holidays, unless the hearing is prevented by exceptional circumstances, unavoidable delays or reasonable postponements. Reasons for all delays should be documented.

3. Disciplinary Board (High Court Hearing)

a. If the offender will be transferred to a state correctional facility from a local jail facility for the purpose of conducting the hearing, the offender must be brought before the disciplinary board of the local jail facility where the violation(s) occurred and informed of the pending transfer and necessitated delay of the hearing. The date the notice was given to the offender shall be documented on the disciplinary report.

b. A properly composed board will consist of two people, a duly authorized and trained chairman and a duly authorized and trained member, each representing a different discipline (security, administration, or treatment). The secretary or designee must approve the chairman and the warden or designee must approve the member.
c. 72 Hour Rule

i. Any offender who is placed in administrative segregation for a rule violation must be given a disciplinary hearing within 72 hours of being placed in administrative segregation. If the hearing is prevented from being conducted within 72 hours by exceptional circumstances or unavoidable delays, the offender must be brought before the disciplinary board and told the reason for the delay.

ii. The 72 hour rule does not apply to offenders housed in local jail facilities (including transitional work programs) whose hearings are conducted once they are transferred to a state correctional facility or those who have their disciplinary hearing conducted at a state correctional facility even if they are not transferred there. Offenders in this status have no expectation of a disciplinary hearing within 72 hours, or even seven days.

iii. The 72 hour rule does not apply to those offenders who are placed in administrative segregation for reasons other than for a disciplinary hearing. Examples of these classifications include, but are not limited to:

   (a). awaiting transfer to another facility or another housing unit within the facility;

   (b). transitional work program or intake, etc.

d. Hearings for those offenders not placed in administrative segregation shall be held within seven days of the date of the report, excluding weekends and holidays, unless the hearing is prevented by exceptional circumstances, unavoidable delays or reasonable postponements. Reasons for all delays should be documented. Any member directly involved in the incident or one who is biased for or against the accused cannot hear the case unless the accused waives recusal in writing or verbally on the record. (Performance of routine administrative duty does not necessarily constitute direct involvement or bias.)

e. Decisions must be unanimous, with each member participating in the deliberations. If the decision is not unanimous, the case is automatically deferred for referral to a different disciplinary board.

f. If a second decision is not unanimous, then a finding of not guilty is appropriate.

g. The disciplinary board may also hear cases of offenders who have signed written requests for protection and may recommend appropriate action.

4. Conduct of the Hearing -- Disciplinary Board (High Court Hearing)
§ 341. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders, 22 LA ADC Pt I, § 341

a. Before the hearing can begin, an accused offender must acknowledge that he is familiar with the offender rights during the disciplinary process. (Refer to Subsection J of this Section, Offender Rights and Responsibilities, for additional information.)

c. Disciplinary board hearings shall be recorded in their entirety and the recording preserved for five years.

d. An offender who does not choose to be present at the hearing may sign a waiver which shall be read into the record. A counsel substitute shall represent him and enter a not guilty plea. The same applies to a disruptive offender who refuses to cooperate. If the offender refuses to sign a waiver, one shall be prepared and the refusal noted by two witnesses. In either case, the disciplinary chairman shall also sign the waiver.

e. The accused enters his name and DOC number into the record as does his counsel or counsel substitute (if any) and confirms that he understands his rights. If the offender indicates he does not know or understand his rights, they must be explained to him.

f. The chairman reads the disciplinary report to the accused and asks for a plea. Available pleas are “not guilty” or “guilty.” Should the accused attempt to enter an unavailable plea or refuse to enter a plea, the chairman will enter a “not guilty” plea for him and proceed with the hearing.

g. Preliminary motions must be raised at the first opportunity or be considered waived and may include:

i. dismissal of the charge(s);

ii. continuance (Offenders are not entitled to a continuance to secure counsel unless they are charged with a violation that is also a crime under state law. Only one continuance will be granted unless new information is produced.);

iii. requests to face accuser and call witnesses, etc.;

iv. a motion due to lack of 24-hour notice, including any challenge to the waiver of the 24-hour notice rule having not been made in writing;

v. request for investigation;

vi. any other appropriate motions.
h. All motions must be made at the same time in the proceedings. Subsequent verbal motions will be denied as having been waived.

i. The board shall deliberate and rule on motions at the time the motion is made, unless expressly deferred to the actual hearing.

j. A summary of motions presented will be documented with written reasons for each ruling made on the disciplinary court motions.

k. After entering his plea and motions, if any, the accused may present his defense.

l. The board may ask questions of the accused, his witnesses and/or his accuser. During the hearing, the accuser should only be present to testify. He shall never be present during deliberations.

m. The disciplinary board shall carefully evaluate all evidence presented or stipulated.

n. In situations where the disciplinary report is based on a single confidential informant, there must be other evidence to corroborate the violation. That evidence may include, but is not limited to, testimony from another confidential informant, the record (investigative report) or other evidence. Whenever information is provided by confidential informants, the informant must be certified as having provided reliable information in the past (and have legitimate knowledge of the present incident(s)). If requested, the accusing employee must be summoned to testify about the reliability and credibility of the confidential informant(s) when the disciplinary report is based solely on information from confidential informants.

  i. All confidential information used in the disciplinary process shall be documented on the confidential informant testimony and certification form.

o. The board will review the information presented during the deliberations.

  i. During deliberations, everyone except the board and any official observers must leave the room, and the board will decide the case on the basis of the evidence presented at the hearing.

  ii. Official observers must not take part in the hearing or the deliberations.

  iii. The disciplinary record of the accused may be examined to discover a pattern of similar misbehavior or to determine if a pending suspended sanction exists.
iv. The disciplinary record may be used to determine the appropriate sanction(s) to be imposed.

v. Both members of the board must verbally discuss and render their verdict(s).

vi. The audio recording will continue throughout the deliberations.

p. Following the deliberations, the chairman will announce the verdict.

q. If the verdict is guilty, the chairman will then announce the sanction(s).

r. It must be clearly articulated which sanction applies to each specific rule violation for which the offender was found guilty.

s. The board has full authority to suspend any sanction imposed for a period of up to 90 days.

5. Correcting Disciplinary Reports

a. A reviewing employee may change the rule violation number to fit the description prior to the hearing but should ensure that the accused gets a corrected copy of the report at least 24 hours before the hearing begins. Rule violation number(s) may be added if the offense is clearly described on the report.

b. Before the hearing begins, the board may change the rule number to match the description of the alleged misbehavior, if necessary, and may also change the rule number at any point prior to the deliberations, but should offer the accused a continuance to prepare the defense. It is the description of the conduct and not the rule number that determines the offense.

c. The continuance may be waived and does not necessarily need to be for 24 hours.

NOTE: This information shall be voiced on the recorder for the record.

6. Sanctions

a. Sanctions must fit the offense and the offender. An offender with a poor conduct record may receive a more severe sanction than an offender with a good conduct record for the same offense. Even so, serious offenses call for serious penalties.
b. An offender who violates more than one rule or the same rule more than once during an incident may receive a permissible sanction for each violation.

c. After a finding of guilt for a new violation, a previously suspended sanction may be imposed as well as a new sanction.

d. State and federal criminal laws apply to offenders. In addition to being sanctioned by prison authorities, offenders may also be prosecuted in state and federal court for criminal conduct.

e. Restitution may be imposed in accordance with established policies and procedures and is not considered a disciplinary sanction and may be assessed in addition to any other permissible penalties.

f. An offender who has established a documented pattern of behavior indicating that he is dangerous to himself or others is a habitual offender. This includes an offender who has been convicted of three major violations or a total of five violations in a six month period. Major violations are Schedule B offenses. A habitual offender may receive Schedule B penalties following a finding of guilt of a Schedule A offense when he has established a documented pattern of hostile or disruptive behavior as defined above.

g. After a finding of guilt, the disciplinary officer may impose one or two of the penalties for each violation.

H. Appeals

1. A request for review of a disciplinary decision must follow these procedures.

a. Appeals to the Disciplinary Board

i. An offender may appeal a case heard by the disciplinary officer (low court) only to the disciplinary board (high court).

ii. As soon as the ruling is issued, the offender who wants to appeal must clearly say so to the disciplinary officer who will then automatically suspend the sanction and schedule the case for the disciplinary board.

iii. The appeal hearing before the disciplinary board is a full hearing the same as any other hearing conducted by the board. The disciplinary board cannot increase the sanction imposed by the disciplinary officer.

iv. The appeal to the disciplinary board will be the final appeal in a case heard by the disciplinary officer. No other appeals are allowed. The appeal from the disciplinary officer to the disciplinary board will constitute the final administrative remedy regarding the disciplinary decision. Decisions rendered by the disciplinary officer and appealed to the disciplinary board may not be appealed to the warden or to the secretary.

b. Appeals to the Warden

i. An offender may appeal a case heard by the disciplinary board (high court). All appeal requests on high court cases shall be to the warden.

ii. The offender may appeal himself or through counsel or counsel substitute. In any case, the appeal must be received within 15 calendar days of the hearing.

iii. The appeal should be clearly written or typed on the appeal from the disciplinary board form. This form is available from the offender's classification officer. If the form is not available, the appeal may be on plain paper but should contain the information called for on the form.

iv. The warden will decide all appeals within 30 calendar days of the date of receipt of the appeal and the offender will be promptly notified in writing of the results (unless circumstances warrant an extension of that time period and the offender is notified accordingly).

v. Lengthy appeals of disciplinary actions will not be accepted into the appeals process. It is necessary for the offender to only provide basic factual information regarding his case. Lengthy appeals will be returned to the offender for summarization. The offender will have five calendar days from receipt to comply with the instructions and resubmit. It is important to remember that abuse of the system impairs the department's ability to respond to legitimate problems in a timely fashion.

c. Appeals to the Secretary

i. An offender may appeal the decision of the warden to the secretary and must indicate that he is “not satisfied” in the appropriate box on the appeal decision form. The document should then be submitted to the disciplinary office or designated depository.

ii. The offender must submit the form within five calendar days of the date of the receipt of the warden's decision. No supplement to the appeal will be considered.

iii. It is only necessary that the offender check the box indicating, “I am not satisfied,” date, sign and forward the form to the appropriate person.

iv. An offender who does not file an appeal to the warden in a timely manner shall relinquish his right to appeal to the secretary.
v. The offender will receive an acknowledgment of receipt and date forwarded to the secretary's office.

vi. The institution will provide a copy of the offender's original appeal to be attached to the appeal decision form for submission to the secretary. The form is available from the offender's classification officer.

vii. The secretary shall only consider appeals of sanctions from decisions of the warden that resulted in an imposed or suspended sentence of one or more of the following penalties:

(a). forfeiture of good time;

(b). a custody change from minimum to medium if it involves transfer to another institution;

(c). a custody change to maximum;

(d). failure to earn incentive wages.

viii. In addition, appeals regarding restitution assessments may be submitted to the secretary. The appeal of such assessments must be submitted in accordance with established policy and procedures.

ix. The secretary will decide all appeals within 85 days of the date of receipt of the appeal and the offender will be promptly notified in writing of the results (unless circumstances warrant an extension of that time period and the offender is notified accordingly). Absent unusual circumstances, the secretary will only consider review of the sanction(s) imposed of an offender who pled guilty.

§ 341. Disciplinary Rules and Procedures for Adult Offenders, 22 LA ADC Pt I, § 341

J. Offender rights and responsibilities:

1. the right to be given a written copy of the disciplinary report at least 24 hours before the hearing begins which describes the contents of the charges against the offender (unless waived by him in writing);

2. the right to a hearing within 72 hours of placement in administrative segregation;

3. the right to counsel substitute for all alleged violations and the right to outside retained counsel, if the alleged violation is one for which the offender could also be charged in a criminal court, e.g. possession of illegal drugs, rape or aggravated battery, etc.;

4. the right to not be compelled to incriminate himself;

5. the right to present evidence and witnesses on his behalf and to request cross-examination of the accuser provided such request is relevant, not repetitious, not unduly burdensome to the institution and/or not unduly hazardous to staff or offender safety. (The board has the option of stipulating expected testimony from witnesses. In such cases, the record of the hearing shall contain a statement indicating the nature of the stipulated testimony. The board should assign proper weight to such testimony as though the witness had actually appeared.) The accusing employee must be summoned when the report is based solely on information from confidential informants, if such a motion is raised;

6. the right to an unbiased hearing. Any chairman or member directly involved in the incident, who is biased for or against the accused or who is in a therapeutic relationship with the offender that would be jeopardized by the therapist's presence on the disciplinary board, cannot hear the case unless the accused waives recusal in writing or verbally on the record. Performance of a routine administrative duty does not necessarily constitute direct involvement or bias;

7. the right to enter a separate plea to each rule violation for which he is charged;

8. the right to a written summary of the evidence and reasons for the judgment, including reasons for the sanction imposed, when the accused entered a plea of "not guilty" and was found "guilty" by the disciplinary board. (This will usually appear on the finalized report.) The convicted offender shall be given or sent a written summary;

9. the right to appeal the decision consistent with the appropriate appeal procedure.

K. Disciplinary Sanctions
1. After a finding of guilt, the disciplinary officer (low court) or the disciplinary board (high court) may impose one or two of the penalties below for each violation.

2. Suspended Sentences. The disciplinary officer or the disciplinary board may suspend any sanction either imposes for a period of up to 90 days. The period of suspension begins on the date of the issuance of the ruling. When the time period has expired, the report itself remains a part of the record, although the sanction may no longer be imposed.
